

Cadet of the Year Award Presented W.O. 11 R. Peters

Captain C. A. M. Cousens with inspecting officer Colonel A. H. Middleton, lead the inspecting party.

The Georgetown District High School was where the action was last Monday. The action was provided by the Cadets of 756 Squadron at their fourth annual inspection.

The program began at 7 p.m. with the falling in of 61 air cadets. The Squadron was taken over by Captain C. A. M. Cousens, Commanding Officer, at 7.30.

An inspection of the squadron was carried out by Colonel A. H. Middleton AFC CD Base, Deputy Commander of Canadian Forces Base Borden.

Following the inspection and march past, the boys of the drill team put on a display of their marching skills. The model club then put on a show, which was proof positive of the long hours spent working on the models.

Under the training of Carl Graskorth two teams of boys put on an air race in which LAC Ted Aris came out victorious. A successful flight of a scale model of a four engine Viscount concluded the model aircraft flights.

The part of the proceedings for which every Cadet works all year is the presentation of awards.

The Air Cadet of the Year Award which was presented to the Squadron by Branch 120 of the Royal Canadian Legion was presented to Warrant Officer H Rick Peters by the Branch president Norm Ward.

Corporal Jeff Crawford was presented with the Sam Tennant Trophy for initiative and enthusiasm by Bruce Collins, the first vice-president of the Branch. Hon Lincoln presented the Hon Lincoln Leadership Trophy to Flight Sergeant Stuart McDonald. The Jim Snow Trophy was presented to the Best Jr. NCO each year was awarded to Corporal Dave Nemeth by the Honourable James Snow MPP.

The Best First Year Cadet Award was presented to LAC Ted Aris by Ivan Crabtree. The Squadron Leader George Moir Trophy for the Best Dressed Cadet on Parade was presented in the Squadron by Mr. George

Moir who is manager of Ontario Provincial Committee. Judgement for this award is based on the dress and deportment of the Cadets for a full training season. Taken into consideration are hair cut, if his brass is polished, the shine on his shoes and how he cares for his uniform. This award was presented to Sgt. Derrick Ezekiel Trophies and pins were also presented for perfect attendance.

The evening was narrated by Harry Clarke.
