Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. A. Harris of 47 Sargent Road has Mrs. Harris' uncle visiting from Scotland for 3 weeks, he hadn't seen him for 22 years. It was his first visit to Canada. A reunion with Tennant Brothers, Bernard and Bill, who have been living in England for almost 20 years, was the highlight of a five-and-a-half week overseas holiday for Mr. and Mrs. Bill Garbutt, 16 Elgin Street. Bernard and his family live at Redhill, Reigate, Surrey, and Bill and his family live at Hayward's Heath, Sussex. The family reunion gave the Garbutts an opportunity to meet several of their nieces and nephews for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Garbutt also visited with former Georgetown residents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McDermott, Sheldon, Durham County. A conducted bus tour of England, Wales and Scotland topped off their holiday.

Social and Personal

Mrs. John Dalziel's mother and brother from Scotland, Mrs. Isobella Stewart, and Hubert Stewart, both of Glasgow, have been visiting with her and her husband and family, 100 Raylawn Crescent.

Social and Personal

Miss Freda Herbert, 43 Edith Street, has enjoyed a 45-day holiday abroad during which she flew to Frankfurt, Germany, and on to Cologne, where she joined friends for a flight to Athens, Greece and a holiday there, and on the Greek Island of Kos, near Turkey. Perpetual sunshine, and a tranquil old-world atmosphere, made their three-week stay on the island a memorable one. A one and a half hour boat ride took them to Turkey for overnight during which time they visited Ephesus. They also took an expedition to the island of Kolymbos, world famous for its sponges. Flying back to Cologne for a few days, Miss Herbert then proceeded on to England for some time in London, and visiting a cousin inournemouth.
