GUESTS AT SMORGASBORD

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bushey enjoy the delicious dinner served to guests at the coffee house gathering, marking the August closing of the Log Cabin on Mill Street. It is an LIP project which has been quite successful this summer.

Readers are invited to submit news of their visits and visitors by phoning Mrs. Mary Blehn, 877-3524 of The Herald office, 877-2201.

Mrs. Mildred Gomoll of Orlando, Florida, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lawrence, 4 Shelley Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renwick, 20 Victoria Crescent, spent a two-week vacation in the West, during which time they visited their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Renwick, Bret, Lori and Boyd, in Calgary, and then flew on to spend some time in Vancouver and Victoria, B.C.

Brenda McNeil of Guelph Street returned home on the Civic holiday Monday, following a five week vacation in Western Canada. While in New Westminster, Miss McNeil stayed with relatives. Her trip included visits to the Calgary Stampede, Banff, Vancouver and the Klondike Days in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Brown, Garry, and Helen, from Newmarket, England, are visiting with Mrs. Dennis Brown and family, 11 Parkview Blvd., while here they often visit with his brother, Dennis Brown, who is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph. This is their first visit to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bogart, 71 Norton Crescent, have had her mother, Mrs. H. Griwatz, visiting with them from Flensburg, Germany. She left for home last week, and now they have another overseas relative as a guest, his brother Mr. Knut Borchert, from Wolfsburg, Germany.

Mrs. Verna Whitney, 5 Tyers Avenue, has had her sister Mrs. Vera Roat from St. Petersburg, Florida, while here she also visited her brothers Mr. William Rogers and Mr. Ern Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rogers, Silvercreek. Mrs. Whitney also had her nephew and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers from Oshawa to visit on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Boyle, Peter and Martyn have returned from a camping holiday at Bon Echo Park here they found themselves camping near the Fitzmaurice, formerly of Georgetown and now living in Ottawa. While horseback riding together one day little Kathy Fitzmaurice had the misfortune to fall from her horse and break her arm. Her many friends in Georgetown wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Veitch, 43 Prince Charles, with sons John, Robert and David, have returned after a four-week holiday in Scotland. They visited in Glasgow with Mr. Veitch's sister and brother, and then hired a "Dormobile", which is similar to a Volkswagen Camper, in which they toured all over Scotland. During their travels, they visited former Georgetowners, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Briggs in Arradoul.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Francis, 35 Shelley Street, had a pleasant two-week holiday in Victoria, B.C., where they visited with Mrs. Nellie Trimble. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Trimble and their three children of Snelgrove, were vacationing with his mother at the same time and the family enjoyed some happy outings together. Highlights were visits to the Butchart Gardens, and salmon-fishing. During one fishing expedition they had the thrill of sighting a school of fifty killer whales.

Mr. Willis said the steel girders are rusting and a 5 ton load limit has been posted. In addition, a large crack is developing, he said.

Queried by the committee, he said the job should be done before winter. The bridge would be widened in the process.

It would cost an estimated $5500 to put the John Street

Friends of Mrs. Margaret Muddle, 56 Bronte Street, Milton will be sorry to hear that Mrs. Muddle is confined to Milton District Hospital.

Miss Gladys Daley, Mid-diesbrough, Teesside, England, has been visiting with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Broomhead, 14 Victoria Crescent for the past three weeks. Miss Daley came to Canada for the wedding of her nephew, Glenn Broomhead, who was married to Beth Mainprize on the 25th of August. Miss Barbara Glover, Vancouver, B.C. was also a guest of the Broomheads for the wedding.

Mrs. Caspar Stumpf of Elmira was a visitor last week with her sister, Mrs. Armin Feller, 3 Emery Street. Mrs. Stumpf, who recently celebrated her 90th birthday was Mary Lake when she lived in town as a girl. After their marriage, the Stumpfs operated a bakery in Elmira for years. While here, the two sisters travelled to visit with their brothers - in Toronto with Mr. Tom Lake, in Thornhill with Mr. and Mrs. George Lake and in Peterborough with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lake.

Mrs. Olive Brown, 15 Charles St., her daughter, Mrs. Ray Vogan, 20 Mary St. and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Laverne Weatherall, R.R.1, Georgetown are home from three weeks in England. They spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Greenwood who run the Malt Shovel Inn at Burley, Yorks, and the remainder of their visit with relatives in Surrey. They travelled to France to visit the Canadian war cemetery, where Mrs. Brown's husband, Charles Weatherall, a World War II casualty, is buried.

Exploring the maritime provinces proved to be a most enjoyable three-week holiday for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill, 10 McNabb Street. Driving through the Adirondacks to Portland, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Hill crossed the Bay of Fundy to Yarmouth, a twelve-hour trip by ferry, and drove along the coast of Nova Scotia to Digby, and thence to Annapolis Royal and a visit with friends at Caledonia. A tour of the fish processing industry, from the catch at sea, to the packaged, frozen product we buy in the supermarket, was a highlight of their visit to Lunenburg. The hills stayed in Halifax, Truro, and drove out to Peggy's Cove, before crossing to Cape Breton at Antigonish. They drove up to Port Sydney, where they took a boat for the eight-hour sail to Newfoundland. Landing at Port Aux Basques, Mr. and Mrs. Hill spent a day exploring the by-ways and quaint little villages in the vicinity. A particularly lovely public park with magnificent beach, impressed them. And having just left a sweltering heat wave in Cape Breton, the coolness of Newfoundland's 57 degree temperature was a welcome change. Back to Cape Breton, they toured the Cabot Trail, and were fortunate enough to have sunshine to enhance its beauty. En route they stopped at Baddeck to see the Alexander Graham Bell Museum. Two days in Prince Edward Island gave them an opportunity to enjoy the scenic countryside, and Cavendish of Ann of Green Gables fame, before returning to Nova Scotia. At Springhurst, they visited its Miners' Museum, which involved going down the shaft into a coal mine. Over to New Brunswick, and visits to Moncton and Newcastle, before Mr. and Mrs. Hill set out for Quebec City, and home via Gananogue.

And town engineer Eric Willis told a council committee last week that the job should be done.

The county organization is presently working on a farm history project for the 1973 Burlington Centennial.

Store manager of the new Firestone Store in Moore Park plaza, Dennis Zalba, managed Firestone Stores in both Hamilton and St. Catharines, and has been with the company for five years. John Ellis, managed the Rexway BP station in town for seven years.

Horses Were Hobby With Century Farmer
A farmer on one of Esquesing's few remaining century farms, John Brown Devereaux, 81, died in Georgetown hospital, August 11.

Mr. Devereaux was born on the 7th Line farm, near the Maple Avenue corner which was granted his ancestors by the crown over a hundred years ago. He was the son of Walter and Mary Ann Brown Devereaux, and both parents were descendants of United Empire Royalists.

After attending Stewarttown school, he took up farming. His riding horses were popular with generations of young people. His interest in farming extended to attendance at fall fairs and the Royal Winter Fair, which he visited nightly for years.

A bachelor, his closest relative is a cousin, Harry R. Brown, R.R.5, Milton. He was predeceased by a brother Willie and sisters Mrs. Laura Miller and Mrs. Elsie Murdoch.

Rev. Kelvin Johnston conducted the funeral service at the McClure-Jones Funeral Home and interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Clarence Carey, George Burt, Ted Brown, Percy Barker, Allen Devereaux, Fredlon and Jim Emmerson, Brampton.
