

Nursery Tradesmen Tour Dutch Landscaping Firm at Norval

A nursery tour by members of the Ontario Nursery Trade Association ended Wednesday afternoon at Dutch Landscaping and Nurseries, with a buffet dinner and an outdoors dance afterwards. Mr. and Mrs. Peter van der Avoird and Sons were the hosts at their 5th Line West Chinguacousy home. Members of the association, who came from as far as Montreal, Ottawa and Saskatchewan, had earlier toured other nurseries in the area. Among these were Tim's Nurseries, Enterprises and Robert Nielson & Son, Trafalgar, Glen Echo

Nurseries on Highway 7, where they had lunch, and Humber Nurseries.

Dutch Landscaping and Nurseries was site of Wednesday tour.

Multiple Sclerosis Picnic at Limehouse

Halton Multiple Sclerosis Society held a picnic last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Blanche Sheppard, 6th Line, Limehouse, the first time the Society has held a picnic in this area.

Forty people from Burlington, Oakville, Acton and Georgetown, some in wheel chairs, ate under the trees, and enjoyed the outing. Some of the children were taken over to Waterfalls Park next door for a swimming party.

The picnic was organized by Mrs. Teresa Scholtz, a nurse working for the Multiple Sclerosis Society, under the Local Improvement Programme. She was helped by Mr. and Mrs. John Pickles of Huttonville, Ross, provided by Mrs. Scholtz, decorated the picnic tables.

John Mockford of Oakville, president of Halton Multiple Sclerosis Society welcomed the guests.

Ballinafad

Cairn Completed, Plan Service of Dedication

Mr. Pinkney has completed the building of the Cairn at the Ballinafad cemetery. The date for the dedication ceremony and the memorial service will be announced shortly.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eckert and family were their nephew Jan Van Der Velden from Baltimore, Maryland and Mr. and Mrs. H. Stever and family from Buffalo, N.Y.

The Ballinafad W.I. held a successful road-side bake sale last Friday on the lawn of Mrs. Leo Jamieson.

Earl McLean is spending this week at the Junior Farmers leadership camp at Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Jones and Miss Valerie Jones of Garson are spending a few days at the farm home of the Frank Smiths.

Several from this area attended the auction sale on Saturday at Georgetown and the farm home of the late John Devereaux. Some high prices were realized for the many antiques that were put up for auction.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Spear were guests at the wedding of Miss Beth Karn to Mr. Danny Spear, which took place in Limehouse Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Garvie and sons have moved into their home formerly occupied by the Posters. Renovating is at present being done.

We also welcome Mr. and Mrs. J. Kanusek who have moved from Toronto into their new home on the Eighth Line.

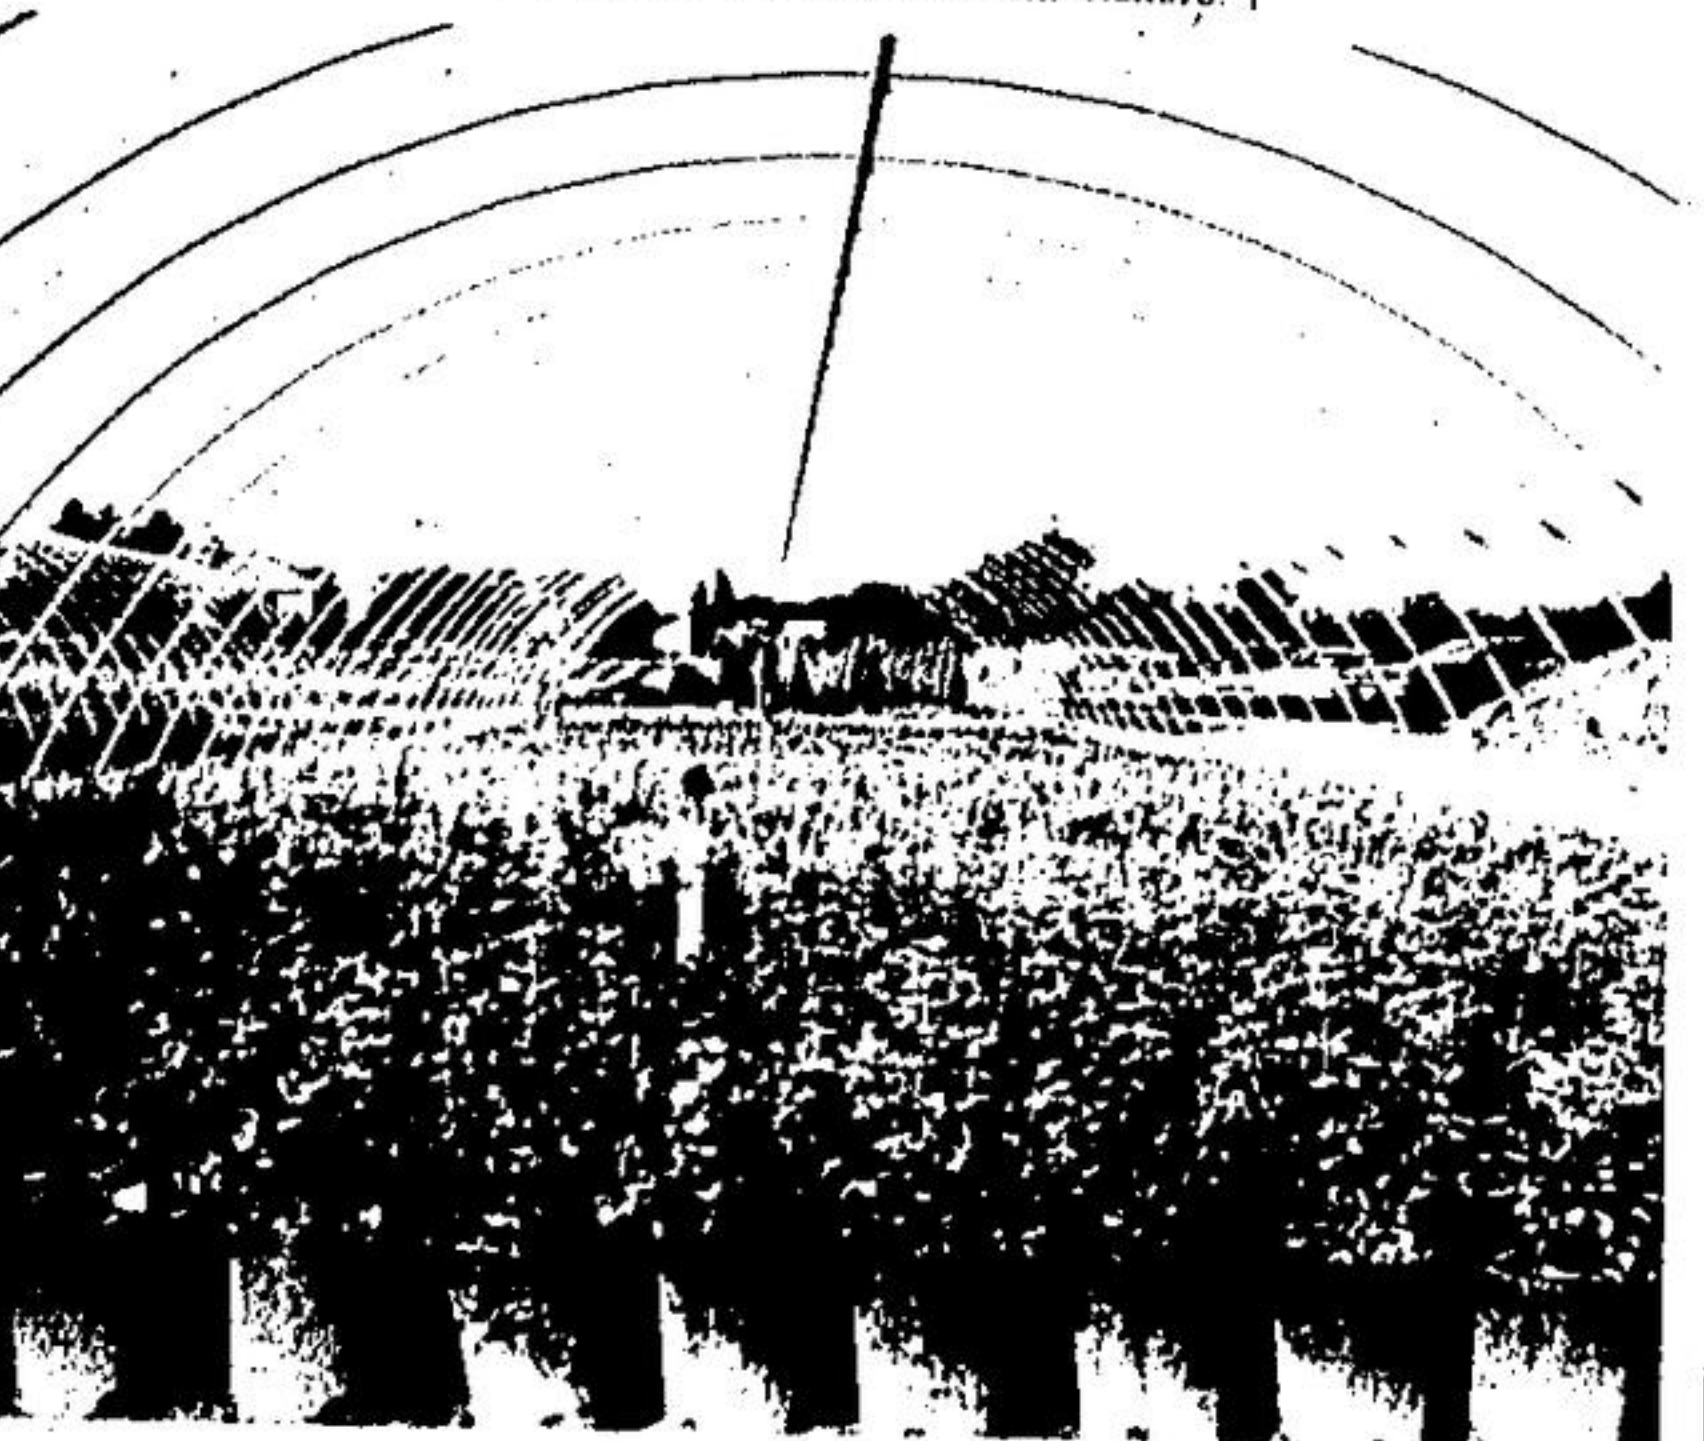

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Madill returned last Sunday from an enjoyable holiday in Ottawa. They arrived on the previous Monday and on Tuesday they went on a bus tour through the city. They visited the Parliament buildings and saw the changing of the guard. In the evening a relative took them to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shortill and family. On the way home they stopped at Kingston and had a boat trip thru the Thousand Islands. They also spent some time visiting other relatives before arriving home Sunday afternoon.

We extend sympathy to the Kirkwood family and other relatives in the passing of Mr. George Binnie who died in Guelph hospital over the weekend. Mr. Binnie farmed in this community for a number of years.
