CARDS OF THANKS

HARRIS—My sincere and heartfelt thanks to all my friends for their kindness and sympathy during the long illness and loss of my beloved wife, Patricia. Special thanks to all the nurses of Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital for their cheerfulness and hard work on my wife's behalf, also to Dr. John Ng for all his efforts. Further special thanks to Rev. Gallagher and Rev. Ruggle for their help to my wife during her illness and to me after my loss. Thanks to all those who contributed to the Canadian Cancer Society. —Phil Harris.

STINSON—The family of the late Russell Stinson of Georgetown would like to express their thanks to Dr. A. Furness, the nurses of Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital and the people of K'n Court, Hyde Park, for their help and kindness. —Patrick Stinson and family.

Moore Park Texaco Leads Industrial Ball Semi Final

Erin has disposed of pennant winning Alpine Club and are waiting to play the winner of the Inglewood-Moore Park Texaco series for the Georgetown Industrial Fastball League championship.

Erin bounced Alpine Club (four games to one with the final tilt Thursday. Gary Deforest was credited with the victory. Combines who went right down to the wire with Alpine Club for the league leadership lost their five game series with Inglewood, three games to two, as Steve Stevenson hurled the victory in the last clash.

Moore Park took the opening game of their best of five series with Inglewood.

The final will be a best of seven affair.
