

All Bowling Prizes Won by Visitors

Susan Penny, games secretary of the Georgetown club, and president Lillian Lawrence present a cheque to Guelph team skip Eileen Summer, Vera Lawrence, right, and Carrie Gove, centre.

Six visiting clubs competed with Georgetown's ladies' lawn bowling club when Georgetown was host at a triples tournament August 30 at the Edith Street greens.

The local women were particularly good hosts, allowing visitors to go home with major wins.

Mrs. Simmons, Guelph, was top three-game winner; Mrs. Burton, Oakville, was second; and Mrs. Russell, Brampton, third. Mrs. Mundy, Brampton, was highest one-game winner.

Fourteen teams competed in three 12-end games, made up of teams from Brampton, Milton, Port Credit, Guelph, Oakville, Streetsville and Georgetown. The ladies' section is an active one this summer, but a club spokesman says there is room for new members too. Members are pleased to instruct anyone who is new to the game.

Watching the bowling in the sunshine from the clubhouse shade are visitors

Gladys Robinson of Guelph, Edna Bennett of Oakville, Frances Clements of Oakville, Marda Miller of Streetsville and Lola Albertson of Streetsville.
