Lady Bowlers Review Successful Season

The ladies lawn bowling club held their annual pot luck dinner meeting at the Edith Street clubhouse October 10. President Lillian Lawrence welcomed the members. At a business meeting, Mrs. Margaret Hunter conducted an election of officers for the 1973 season, with the following results:

Mrs. Lillian Lawrence, president; Mrs. Edna Murray, vice president; Mrs. Lauretta Mills, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Marjorie Wilson, secretary; Miss Sara Edwards, treasurer; Mrs. Susan Penny, Mrs. Violet Answorth, Mrs. Gladys Robinson, Mrs. Helen Archer and Mrs. Murray form the games committee. Mrs. Myrtle Pattenden is flower and card convener.

A social committee comprises Mrs. Edna Renwick, Mrs. Freida Hunter, Mrs. Jessie Dick, Mrs. Aileen Douglas, Mrs. Hilda Penrice and Mrs. Archer. Mrs. Hunter is auditor.

The women enjoyed a very successful season this year. A verandah project was completed, with help from members, and from Rex Cook and son Barry.

Two invitational tournaments, in women's tournaments, were held, with fourteen teams competing in each.

Film Show Goes Will Get Two Helpings of Chaplin

The legendary Charlie Chaplin, known as the "Little Tramp" for over half a century will be seen in "The Tramp" as the Georgetown Library Film Show, November 2.

In another mixture of paths and comedy, the Chaplin trademark, he will also appear in "The Pawnshop". In both silent movies his heroine is Edna Purviance, a name now known only to the silent film buffs, whose numbers are increasing all the time.
