Trouten Stars In Man of La Mancha

Many Georgetown people have made it a habit to attend production of Hamilton Theatre Incorporated - a musical organization which is, in every way, professional.

The Hamilton company has presented most of the hit Broadway shows over the years.

This year, they have chosen Man of La Mancha, which recently played at Toronto's O'Keefe Centre. Allan Jones was the star of the touring show.

Local people have an extra incentive to see the Hamilton show, which opens Saturday evening, then plays November 2, 3, 4, 9, 10 and 11.

It stars Burlington singer Tom Trouten who, when he lived in Georgetown, was always a prominent member of minstrel and variety shows, as well as singing in the choir of St. John's United Church.

Mr. Trouten started his professional career when he starred in Pyjama Game in Kitchener. He has played leading parts in Hamilton in Kiss Me Kate, The King and I and Most Happy Fella, among others. And he has also played at Toronto's O'Keefe, in a featured role in a summer production of South Pacific.

In his Don Quixote role in Man of La Mancha, he will sing the hit song 'Impossible Dream', which is reason enough to attend.

Certain time each night is 8:00 p.m. in Mohawk College Theatre.

NO MARINER, THIS!
