

RUBBLE HEAP WAS FARMHOUSE

A pile of smouldering brick was all that remained of an old farm house near Ballinafad when the sun rose last Wednesday morning. A fire of unknown origin levelled the house during the night. It had been vacant for two years. The house, on the 8th Line of Esquesing just south of the Ballinafad Sideroad, had been frequently hit by vandals.

Ends Seven Years' Leadership

Harry Moss Resigns as Lawn Bowling President

Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club president Harry Moss tendered his resignation by letter at the club's annual meeting in the Canada Trust Building, October 26. Accepting it with the regret, the members moved to write Mr. Moss and thank him for his "loyal support, faithful service and excellent leadership over the past seven years."

An election of the Officers of the men's section was held and the following were elected to office for 1973: president, Bill Robinson; sec.-treas., Ted Lawrence; auditors, Bob MacArthur and Charlie Kenwick; tournament sect., Claude Kentner; grounds committee chairman, Oliver Hunter; games committee chairman, Jack Hunter; district representatives, Bill Robinson and Ted Lawrence.

report on the club's activities over past year and expressed the club's sorrow at the passing of two valued club members, Mrs. Florence Cleave and Mr. Frank Wilson. A moment of silence was observed out of respect to these two members who had rendered faithful service to the club over the past years. All present agreed that they would both be greatly missed.

Various committee reports were given. The ladies' section had held their meeting previously reporting that they too had a successful year. The Junior Club also told of a good year and members expressed the hope that more young people will take up lawn bowling.

members had greatly assisted the club in buildings this season. Rex Coek and his son Barry. The club duly showed their appreciation for their help in this project.

No Wins Here In Minikin Lottery

There were no local winners in the Kin Lottery Minikin draw, held October 15 in Cornwall.

But local buyers will have a chance next Wednesday, when the jackpot draw for total prizes of $80,000 takes place. The local Kinsmen club is an active supporter and many tickets are sold in this area.

Closest winner in the Minikin was Sheila Gallant, Mississauga, who won $100. Beatrice St. Ament, 685 Brock Ave., Toronto won the $5,000 prize and A. M. McLaren, 128 Ontario St., Port Perry, $1,000.

Ontario Kinsmen Clubs have received a licence for another lottery which put tickets on sale the first of this month. Profits are used to further cystic fibrosis research, as well as helping Kinsmen clubs to support charitable causes in their own communities.
