Norval Buries Glen as Cougars Edge Milkmen

Norval Alouettes built up a 3-1 lead in the first period and went on to an easy 5-1 win over Glen Williams in Georgetown Industrial Hockey League play in the Memorial Arena, Sunday morning.

The win temporarily put the Norvals alone in first place in the four team loop, but North Halton Cougars kept pace by edging Mac's Milk 2-1 in the other scheduled game.

After three games, Norval and North Halton have identical records of two wins and a loss. Mac's and Glen Williams each have one victory and two defeats.

Wayne Davison led the Norval attack with a pair of goals. Dorm Parsons, Benny Heppes and Reg Benoit also counted for goal from Jim Boulanger. Jack Kemshead and Terry Lane did the North Halton scoring, with John Quackenbush, Terry Lane and Dwayne Hay picking up the assists. Kevin Hickey from Gary Boyle was the lone Mac's Milk combination. Glen goes against Cougars, and Mac's Milk plays Norval this Sunday.

Only 4 Days Left To Join The Next Group of Real Estate Money-makers

IF your present job isn't making you the kind of money you feel you're worth, now is the time to move into real estate with United Trust.

OUR sales are breaking records every week. WE have one of the best commission and bonus systems in the business. And also because we do more than just help you get your license, we teach you how to sell, too.

AT United Trust, we have our own real estate school. And for years we've been teaching people our proven techniques for making sales. In return, they've made us the largest seller of homes in Canada.

WE'LL be starting to teach the next group of real estate money-makers on November 13. SO come on and be one of them. Call Ray Gosling Manager at 457-5800 today.

Limehouse Man Is Now PH.D. In Engineering

It's now Dr. Glynn for a former Limehouse resident.

Peter Glynn received his Ph.D. in chemical engineering at University of Waterloo. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn attended the convocation.

Peter attended the Stone School, S.S. 16, graduating before his eleventh birthday, and took his high school course in Georgetown. He passed his two years at Royal Roads College, Victoria, B.C. and two at Royal Military College, Kingston, graduating in 1965.

He married Arlene Whalen, a graduate nurse, of Trout Creek in 1966, and took his Master's degree at Waterloo. Their daughter, Jennifer, was born in Germany when he was stationed there for two years with Canadian forces. On their return to Canada, he started his post-graduate studies at Waterloo.

He is presently with the provincial department of colleges and universities in Toronto. They are making their home in Clarkson, with their new son, Jeffery, now added to their household.

Funeral service was held at Queenville for Stuart Wright, on Sunday.

The family was well known in this district when they lived here twenty or more years ago. He leaves his wife, son Alex and daughter Shirley.
