Valerie Schwantz, daughter of Police Chief Floyd Schwantz, surveys the

Wed in Garden Setting At Blue Mountain Farm

Blue Mountain Farm, R.R.1, Georgetown, the home of Mr. George Ridley was the scene of the garden wedding on August 19, of Kathryn Anne King, daughter of Mrs. K. W. (Jim) King of 32 Normandy Blvd. Georgetown and the late Mr. King to Dale Frederick Carleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Carleton, R.R. 5, Georgetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. K. Johnston of St. Andrew's United Church.

For the double ring ceremony, the bride was escorted down the aisle by Mr. Ridley in a full-length gown of white georgette over crepe, trimmed with a wide band of guipure lace atop a double frill, edged in medallion-pointed lace. The bodice was hand applique. Her full length veil, ending in a cathedral train was also trimmed with medallion lace, and held in place by a white flowered head piece. For something borrowed, she carried a white lace handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, and wore a gold locket worn by her mother at her wedding. She carried a nosegay of white daisy mums, and stephanotis.

Miss Joanne Hall, maid of honour, Mrs. Doreen Steppard, and Mrs. Shirley Hepburn, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids, were gowned in lime green, lemon yellow, and deep orchid chiffon over multi-coloured, flowered, sheer, long, full sleeves, and frilled, v-neckline dresses, and carried white baskets of daisy mums of contrasting colours, with matching picture hats. They wore sterling silver brooches, gifts of the bride and groom.

Mr. Brian Bailey was groomsman and Mr. Jim Egerton and Mr. Jim Hepburn, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers. The bride and

4-H Club Busy Preparing For Achievement Day

Hallowe'en was a very quiet night in the village with very few tricks and the number of children out for treats away below the usual number. Instead of the usual hundred or so most residents report about 60 or less.

This year the goblins, witches, black cats, etc., that came knocking on the door were the little children and all were very enjoyable. The bigger children were few and far between and most were out to take a few little ones around.

Where all the bigger children disappeared to this year is not known but it made a much more enjoyable evening for those who were handing out the treats although most homes in the village are left with hallowe'en candy to dispose of.

The Norval 4H Club are busy preparing for Achievement Day on their course of 'Dressing Up Vegetables'. There are seven members and they take turns with two members cooking and serving different vegetables at each meeting.

Some of the vegetables they have learned how to cook are zucchini, turnip, squash, and cabbage. They learn how to cook them in various ways such as boiling, pan frying, paning, baking, deep frying and pressure cooking, and also how to decorate the dish to make it attractive when served.

The Home Economist, Mrs. Bannister, visited the group for one meeting. Leaders are Mrs. Bill Laidlaw and Mrs. Allen Castle.

Norval Cubs held a Hallowe'en party on Thursday evening October 26. They enjoyed games such as apple on a string, peanut scramble, etc. Costume prizes were won by Michael Baunier, Ernie Haller and Scott Wigley.

A special investiture night was held in the Parish Hall on Thursday evening November 2 when seven boys were invested into Cubs by District Commissioner Gordon Douglas. The boys invested into Cubs were — Steven Hallie, David Johnston, Mark Smith, Michael Snider, Mark Snider, Richard Wittecock and Scott Wigley.

Limehouse News

Congratulations to Carol Turner and Michael Joe who were married October 25. They are making their home at Cooksville. A large number of relatives and friends attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents in the evening.

Mrs. A. C. Patterson visited her sister Mrs. S. Smith at Weston for a few days recently.

Parts of the fifth line were recently re-surfaced. We hope it will not be used as a speedway.

New Amsterdam was the earlier name of New York City.
