

Special Composition For Pipe Band's 30th

One of Georgetown's oldest organizations, Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, is now thirty years old. Formed in 1942, it was the idea of the late Roy Magpughlen, with Mary (Cummins) Patterson and Lol (Costigan) Reid assisting in formation of the organization. The band has since performed all over Ontario, from Sault Ste Marie to Ottawa, North Bay to Niagara. They have appeared in Quebec City, Detroit, New York and Chicago, to mention some out-of-province engagements. To celebrate their 30 years, the band is planning a dance November 25 in the Masonic Hall. There, for the first time, an original composition will be played. "The Georgetown Girls Pipe Band 30th Anniversary March" was written by Roy Cock, instructor of the snare drummers. Another feature will be a raffle of a 7 pound Christmas cake, made by the mother of a band member.

MEMBERS

Active membership in the band today includes: Ginny Hulme, pipe major; Gail Bennett, drum major; Val Cunningham, Diane Arthurs, Tracy Porter, Leslie Burns, Linda Pilgrim, Dianne Duffie, Sandra Black, Debbie Buckley, Joy Rutherford, Colleen Cummins, Catherine Milton, pipers: Gail Nixon, Betsy Arthurs, Patsy Arthurs, Linda Greig, Jane Petterson, drummers.

Laurie Johnston, Debbie Dean, Maureen MacIntyre, Tracy Treahy, Jeanette Milton, Linda Middleton, Linda Gustavsen, Pat Spitzer, beginners.

HIGHLAND GAMES

Functions this year at which the band performed include competition at the Fergus Highland Games in August. The same month, they played for the Duke of Argyle at a Clan Campbell gathering as part of the Scottish World Festival. They played "Amazing Grace" with accompaniment by the Lorne Scots Military Band.

In September, they played at the Lions Beer Garden in the arena, led a church parade for Kennedy Road Tabernacle, Brampton, and had engagements at Georgetown, Milton and Markham fall fairs.

November 9, the band led a parade for the Royal Winter Fair, up Bay Street to Toronto City Hall. This was televised on CFTO-TV.

Married Here, Will Make Home in London

Recent newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Luc Lemieux will soon be making their home in London. The groom, marketing representative for Simmons Ltd., is being transferred there the end of this month.

The marriage of Cherry Alexa Jenson to Mr. Lemieux took place in Holy Cross Church. Father Oger Devent performed the ceremony and Mr. J. A. Redmond was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jenson, 2 Arletta Street, and her father gave her in marriage. The groom is the son of M. and Mme. Henri Lemieux, Longueuil, Quebec, formerly of Georgetown.

For the double ring ceremony, which took place in a setting of white gladiolus, the bride wore melon crepe with overdress of Chantilly lace, featuring long, billowing sleeves and sweeping train, with mantilla headpiece of Chantilly lace falling to the waist. She carried a cascade of candy-stripe pink carnations.

Matron of honour, Mrs. Roy Murden, Jr., Burlington, cousin of the bride, was in floor length avocado crepe with antique gold trim, and carried a cascade of shocking pink mums.

Thomas Dalziel, Weston, was groomsmen. Kerry and Robert Jenson, brothers of the bride, were ushers. The men wore black tuxedos with white carnation boutonnières.

A dinner dance reception for family and friends was held at the Odd Fellows Hall. Alex Korzack, godfather of the bride, and father of the matron of honour, was toastmaster.

The mother of the groom, in a rust crimplene floor length gown with cream cymbidium orchid. Among the guests were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Maxwell of Montreal, and several other relatives from that city.

The couple honeymooned in Freeport, Grand Bahama Islands.

Before her marriage, the bride was employed with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Guelph and Mountainview branch.

Showers were tendered the bride by her matron of honour and her aunt, Mrs. Alex Korzack, also by employees from the bank. A presentation was made to the groom from Simmons, Ltd.

Georgetown Girls Pipe Band were at the front of a parade from the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair to Toronto City Hall Thursday to officially open the Royal Winter Fair Week. Behind the Georgetown Band were eight members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police horse guard.

Change House For Town Park

With a surplus forecast in the recreation department budget, council voted Monday to set aside $16,500 for a 1963 project. The money will be used to construct a change house at the fairgrounds, for use of sports organizations.

A by-law was passed, earmarking the funds for this.

"I'm shopping at Loblaws again because of the short check-out lines"

Trudi App thinks the service is better at Loblaws.

"I went to another super-market one Saturday and stood in a check-out line for twenty-five minutes. When I walked out the door I said, 'That's it.'"

"Loblaws were advertising service, and though I didn't really believe it, at that point I was willing to try anything."

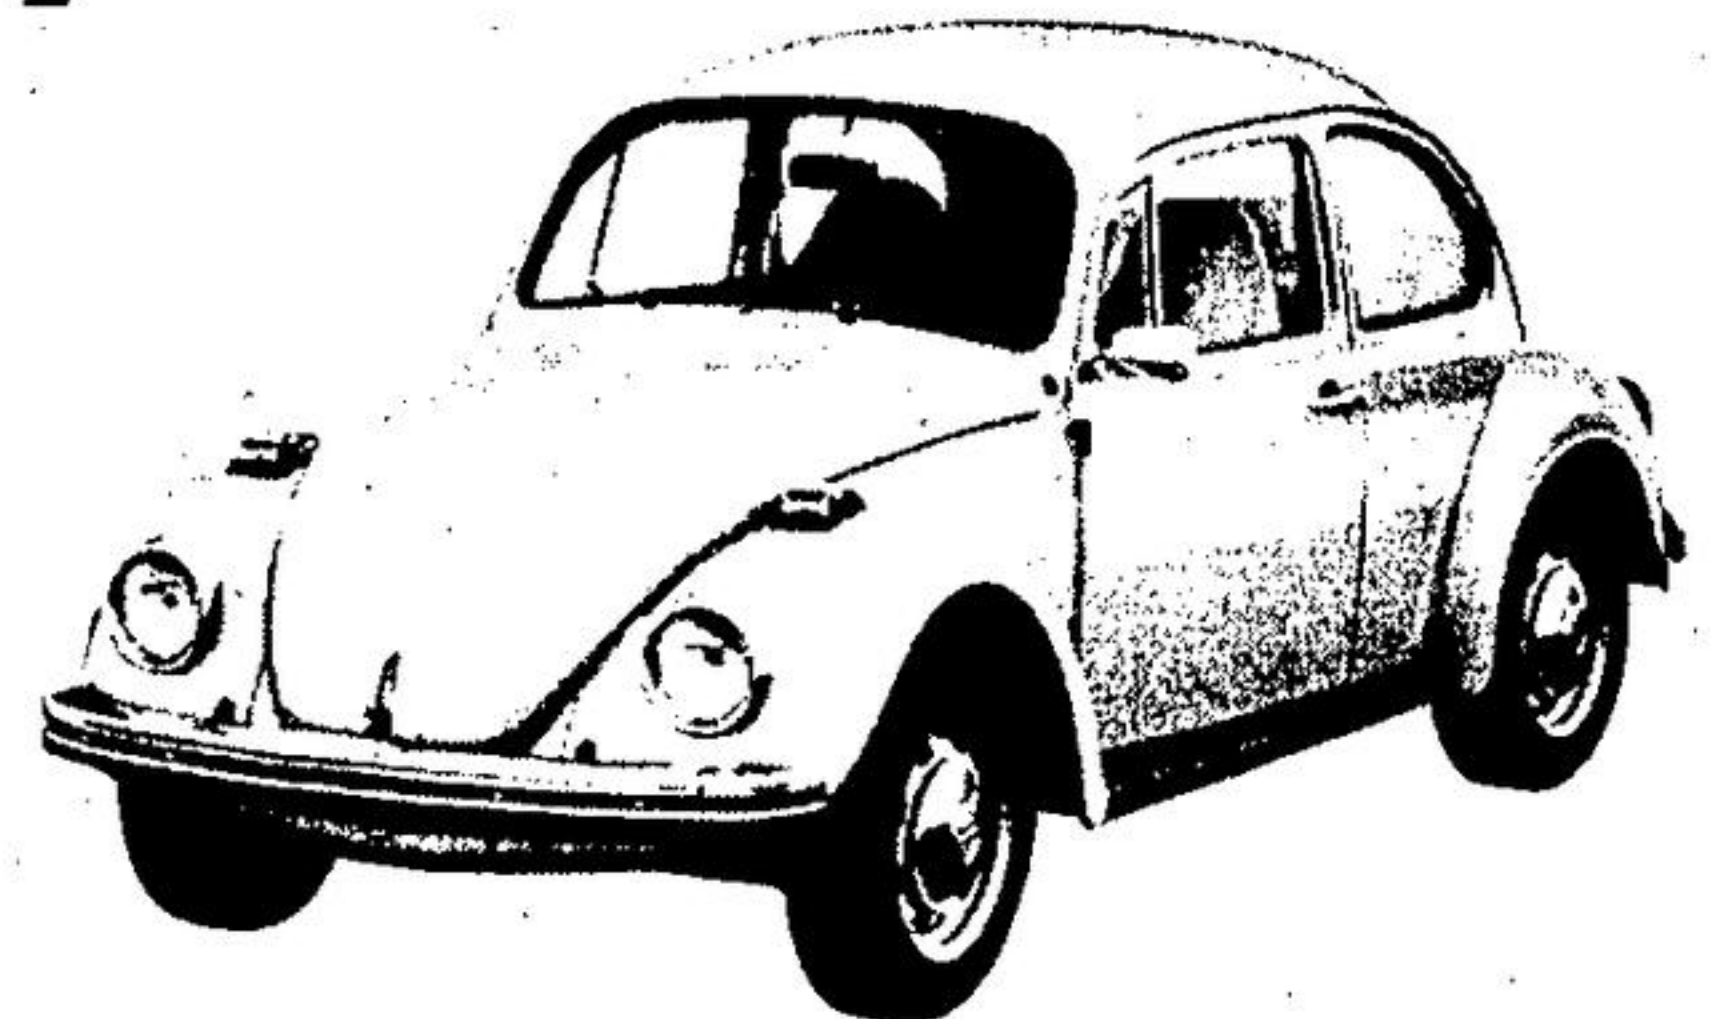

"Now I don't have to wait so long. I don't know. Loblaws seem to have more staff."

"I'd swear they put more people on in the busy times."
