

Haggis Piped in With Pomp and Ceremony

by RALPH HAWES
It was an interesting and exciting week at the Branch, with promise of much more to come.
The highlight had to be the Robbie Burns night. The Branch pipe band excelled themselves by presenting the finest Burns Night those who regularly attend have ever enjoyed.
The head table was brass studded.
Mayor and Mrs. Smith, MPP and Mrs. Jim Snow, Padre and Mrs. Kelvin Johnston, Drum Major Jack Cuthbert, Pipe Major and Mrs. Merv Allan, Dr. and Mrs. A. Macintosh, vice-president Provincial Command David and Mrs. Capperault, Branch president and Mrs. Norm. Ward.

MUCH POMP
The haggis was piped in with much pomp and ceremony befitting the occasion. Dr. Macintosh, who addressed the haggis, did so with the command and fierceness of a Highland chieftain, tempered with the affection and tenderness of a Highland lass.
Bob Cuthbert's rendering of 'The Immortal Memory' was the finest it has been our good fortune to listen to. Much tribute was paid to Burns' father, and poems and songs were quoted:
My love is like a red red rose,
That's newly sprung in June;
My love is like a melody
That's sweetly played in tune.
Address to the unco guid, is something with which all of us should become familiar.
The night finished with dancing to the music of Johnny Tocher, with a pleasant intermission when entertainment was provided by Lynda Greig and Lynda Allan, Highland dancers.

CHAPPEL WINS
Saturday was a busy day, sportwise. Owing to the inability of Burlington branch to obtain ice, Georgetown was host to the District Curling which took place Saturday and Sunday at North Halton club.
Eight rinks participated, with final showdown taking place late Sunday afternoon between two Branch 120 teams — Harv

Chappel, skip, Ken Taplin, Gord Campbell and Trev Williams; and Doug Ellis, skip, Dunc Moneygony, Bill Schenk and Pat Chamberlain.
With our Branch having the whole thing sewn up, all that remained was to decide which team would qualify for provincial curling at Trenton. Chappel's rink pulled it off and will represent District B and Georgetown will be official host to next year's district curling.

ZONE CRIB
Zone cribbage took place at Milton branch, also on Saturday. Several teams from 120 pitted their skills against all-comers and did well. Final results — Brampton E team first, followed by Georgetown C, Brampton A, Port Credit A and C, Georgetown A, Brampton O, and Georgetown B, in that order. We understand the three 120 teams will qualify for District. Georgetown C team of Tom Harlow, Cliff McDonald, Albert Porter and Art Hills, returned home carrying trophies.
More Saturday sports, this time zone darts at Brampton, where the Ladies Auxiliary was represented with several teams. There were 28 teams in all, from nine branches. Dot Day's team of Marg Hedley, Joyce Markham, Marion Carney and Sarah Richards won the zone trophy and qualified in regional competition. Teams captained by Marion Beattie and Mary Cooper also qualified.

BRANCH BITS
In spite of two broken ribs, entertainment chairman Dennis Wright is still on the ball, and has organized a 'get together' night for Saturday. This is for branch and auxiliary members and friends, a come one, come all effort to get to know each other better, while enjoying the music of Lorne Veal.

7th Annual Presbyterial in Knox Church, February 7

Rev. John Hobson, Minister of Queen St. East, Presbyterian Church, Toronto, and Miss Charlotte Stuart, deaconess of the National Staff of the W.M.S. and appointed by them to work in Queen St. E. Church and Inner City will act together as a team to portray 'Faith in Action', at the Seventh Annual Meeting of Brampton Presbyterian in Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, on Wed. February 7.

During the 17 years that Rev. John Hobson has served Queen St. E. congregation many changes have taken place in the district around the church. It has been a challenge to him to relate the Gospel to the needs of a changing Inner City Parish and to keep those needs and concerns before the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He and his wife, Nina, have five children.
Miss Charlotte Stuart, deaconess from the Church of Scotland, worked near Edinburgh in a village which expanded to a big suburb, where the membership grew to 2,000 with a Sunday School of 900 children. She then went to Nigeria to assist in lay ministry and before coming to Canada assisted in the training of deaconesses and missionaries both male and female in St. Colm's Training College, Edinburgh.

SPECIAL MUSIC
Special music at this annual meeting will be given by Alan H. Cowie, director of music at Knox Church, Oakville. Mr. Cowie acted as manuscript editor for the new revised Book of Praise which was introduced to all Presbyterians in 1972.
The morning Topic: "Let's look visually at our responsibilities" will be stressed when the reports are presented in the morning.
A hot dinner will be served at noon by the ladies of Knox church.
Installation of officers and closing devotions will be taken by Miss Louise A. Reith, executive sect'y.

SMILE!
A kindergarten teacher smiled pleasantly at the gentleman opposite in the bus. He did not respond. Realizing her error, she said aloud, "Oh, please excuse me. I mistook you for the father of two of my children." She got out at the next corner.
