NORTH HALTON CURLING NEWS

by CYNTHIA & GORD PARTRIDGE

Peggy Crichton Rink is Noble Trophy Winner

This has been another busy week at North Halton with two bonspiels taking place. The Ladies Curling open bonspiel was won by Emily Gardhouse of Brampton who finished first in the 1st draw and were also the trophy winners.

Drennan of Humber Highlands was second in the 1st draw with Vivian of Wentworth coming in third. Lange of Tam Heather was first in the second draw and Cooksley of Acton and Townsend of Dundas Valley coming in second and third. The food was delicious and a good day was had by all.

The bonspiel for the Noble Trophy was held on Saturday and the first place team on the second draw were the victorious team winning the trophy skipped by Peggy Crichton, with Gail Sparks, vice; Cathy Perego, second; and Marilyn Humberstone, lead. Each girl was given individual trophies presented by Joyce Noble. Other winners were Marg O'Flaherty, Maggie Anderson, Dorothy Hill, and Audrey Preston finishing first in the 1st draw with Lorraine Pursel, Norma Porter, Gert McGee and Ida Mae Woodburn coming in second and Marion Hogan, Phyl Monckton, Lena Burns and Fran Allison coming in third.

Faye Braithwaite, Jean McCormick, Naydene Roberts, and Eileen Manley were second in the 2nd draw and Betty Hull, Nora Ford, Beth Anderson and Doreen Geofreda came in third. The Bonspiel Committee is to be congratulated for doing such a fine job at all the bonspiels. They have to be at the club the whole day to make sure things go smoothly and sometimes it is a hard job to get all the curlers needed to make a successful bonspiel.

The Social Committee made sure that our guests were made welcome.

Our club was well represented at out of town clubs also. Finishing 1st in the second draw were Marg O'Flaherty, skip; Peggy Crichton, vice; Lorna Elliott, second and Ben Embling, lead. Also the Business Girls Trophy playdowns took place last week and North Halton was represented by Marla Douglas, Barb Skinner, Karen Henderson and Shirley Hoffman.

Two teams from our club will be participating in the Tankard at Oakville on February 13th and 14th represented by Audrey Symmes, Joan Ewan, Lue Morefield and Lena Burns, and Faye Braithwaite, Gwen Budreo, Jean Brander and Camille Margan. It is hoped some girls from the club will go to Oakville to see some great curling and cheer our girls on to victory.

The second draw in the Ladies section finished last week with the following girls prize winners:

Monday—1st, Marion Hogan, Dorothy Hill, Velda Carlo and Ann Devereux.

2nd—Inez Crichton, Ann Timmins, Marg Cameron and Marilyn Humberstone.

3rd—Doris Zilio, Jane Burrows, Ruth Bacon and Janet Manderson.

Tuesday—1st, Phyl Monckton, Dorothy Hill, Marianne Leggate, and Dorothy Currie.

2nd—Prairie Bessey, Joanne Morton, Naydene Roberts and Marie Nicholson.

3rd—Jenny MacKenzie, Alice Cornell and Pam Cowan.

Thurs. a.m.—1st, Vivian Kruger, Bobbie Phillips, Ethel Murdy and Ida Mae Woodburn.

2nd—Doris Zilio, Lena Burns, Pam Soward and Wendy Saxe.

Thurs. p.m.—1st, Lorraine Pursel, Nora Ford, Ruth Bacon, and Jackie Foskett.

Thurs. p.m.—2nd Anne Timmins, Marilyn Barber, Velda Carlo and Marianne Leggate.

3rd—Mary Biehn, Arden Mainprize, Joanne Morton and V. Bradley.

The Men Standard Product bonspiel will start February 12 to 17 and we understand there are still a few vacancies, so you had better sign up men because there is no curling the week the spiel is on. You are guaranteed three games and some really good curling so "Don't delay. Sign today."

Sam-Son Show Draws More Than 100 Horses

Sunday before last 111 horses entered the Winter Training Show at Sam-Son Farms R.R.1 Hornby. The show had 12 divisions and was held to give young horses experience in shows and classification for future official shows. Entries came from the surrounding area and as far away as Peterborough and Niagara Falls.

Winners and classification were as follows:

First Class Pony Working Hunter was won by J. Alexander owned and ridden by Lorrie Jones of Hornby.

Second Class Pony Equitation Over Fences was won by Little Miss Runabout, owned and ridden by Valerie Jorden of Mississauga.

Third Class Pony Working Hunter was also won by Little Miss Runabout.

Fourth Class Junior and Amateur Hunter Hack was won by Double Dutch, owned and ridden by Lorrie McCrae of Toronto.

Fifth Class Junior and Amateur Working Hunter was won by Lady Penelope, owned and ridden by Jill Lightbody of Mississauga.

Sixth Class Junior and Amateur Equitation Over Fences was won by Double Dutch, owned and ridden by Lorrie McCrae of Toronto.

The winner of the Sam-Son Farms Calfcut was Habbli ridden by Stewart Houlding.

Donny Day said that the turnout for the show was so good that later in February there will be a Green Jumper showing at the farms. This is also the result of poor weather which cut short the showing of this classification. Other classifications will have another showing on another February date.

TRI-COUNTY SCOREBOARD

Minor and Major Midgets, Juveniles Keep Progressing

MAJOR NOVICE (Game 1-2nd Round OMHA Playoffs)
Georgetown 2 Chinguacousy 5
Sun. Feb. 4—Firefighters worked very hard against a strong Chinguacousy club to come from behind 4-0 to an end result of 5-2. Despite the loss the boys all tried hard and Brian Ellis in goal gave his team good support making many good saves. Goal scorers were Herb Kewley and Matt Bauer.

MAJOR PEEWEE (Game 1-2nd Round OMHA Playoffs)
Georgetown 3 Chinguacousy 1
Thurs. Feb. 1—Standard Product peewees played their best game of the year, and with a little luck it could have been their best victory of the year. A strong effort by everyone took this game into overtime. Goal scorers were Don Thompson from Ken Withers, Scott Walker from Mike Halstead and Rich Hewitt and Mike Jobb unassisted.

MAJOR BANTAM (Game 1-OMHA 2nd Round Playoffs)
Georgetown 0 Chinguacousy 1
Sun. Feb. 1—Bantam Medics even though losing 4-0 worked hard getting strong support from Rob Osborne in goal. Terry Turner, Steve Smith, Ricky Iglesias and Bruno Martina gave it their best.

MAJOR MIDGET (Game 1-OMHA 2nd Round Playoffs)
Georgetown 5 Chinguacousy 3
Thurs. Feb. 1st—Sunny Acre Farms won their first game 5-3 in a very close game. Scoring for Georgetown were Charlie Knoepfl from Blake Shortill and Steve Halm, Dean Popiel from Gary McFayden. Bill

The impressive silver trophy being held by Georgetown Major Midget coach Ron Dixon is a new award this year, the Paul Fendley Memorial Trophy, donated by neighbours and friends of the late Paul Fendley who died as the result of a hockey injury last season. A former Georgetown Midget standout, Paul was with Guelph juniors and on his way to a bright hockey career when the accident happened. It will be awarded the Most Valuable Georgetown Major Midget annually. The trophy is currently on display in The Herald's office window.
