ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD

Four Places on Hospital Up for Election Board

The annual meeting of the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital Association will be held at the hospital cafeteria next month. In addition to a detailing of the past year's activities in reports by the chairman and various committees, elections will be held for four director's positions. Directors are elected for a three year term on a staggered basis, with four vacancies created each year. The annual meeting will be open to nominations for these four vacancies. Retiring members this year, who are eligible for re-election, are T. E. Beer, E. F. Hall, W. R. Lawson and T. Evans. Persons eligible to vote at the annual meeting must either be Honorary Life Members of the Association or annual members who have paid a yearly fee of $5.00 at least 30 days in advance of the date of the annual meeting.

Infant Slightly Injured in Glen Auto Accident

Thursday, February 8, Tweedle St. at Glen Cresce. In Glen Williams was the scene of a two car collision involving vehicles driven by David Neale, 44 Margaret St., Brampton, and Shirley Reid, 27 Tweedle St., Glen Williams. Total damage was estimated to be $175.00 and minor injuries were sustained.

Many area residents became Honorary Life Members when they donated $50.00 or more to the Hospital Fund at the time the hospital was built. Annual memberships may be obtained at the office of the hospital administrator.

Refreshments will be served at an informal social period following this year's business session so that hospital directors can meet and talk with other members of the Association.
