

CARNIVAL KALEIDOSCOPE

Georgetown Figure Skating Club weaved its own special brand of magic for the 18th time Saturday and Sunday when they took capacity crowds to Wonderland, thrilled them with another kind of wonder in Jesus Christ Super Star, and treated them to the wizardry of Mister Freestyle himself — Donald Jackson, at right.

Debbie and John Dowding, in the far right corner, had the lead rolls in Super Star.

Some of the Georgetown club members who were able to pause long enough back stage to be identified were Patrick Shanks who played Pilate (lower right), Bobby Hall in baby garb (right), white rabbit Sherry Smeaton with Gail Annett and Cydney Sherry keeping warm, (below), angels Tara Smith and Susan York, women from the Healing Scene, Kelly Barber, Laura Simpson and Jenny Annett (below).

The Minimum Wage goes up again.

One of the better things about working in Ontario is the protection you get under the Employment Standards Act. Now we've raised the Minimum Wage again.

As of February 1, 1973 the Minimum Wage is going up:

General Industry — $1.80/hour
Construction Industry — $2.05/hour
Students under 18 years of age — $1.45/hour

If your wage depends on the established Minimum get the whole story on the new Minimum Wages and how the Act protects you, by writing or phoning.
