Gilbert Nets Three as Raiders Defeat Welland

Spurred by Tom Gilbert's three goal effort, Georgetown Raiders skated to a convincing 7-3 victory over Welland Merchants in a Niagara District Intermediate A Hockey League game in Georgetown Memorial Arena Friday night. It was Raiders' third to last home ice appearance of the current schedule. They host Fort Colborne tomorrow night, and in a rare Saturday night home game, cap the schedule against Welland.

Assured a playoff chance, Raiders' current battle is to capture second spot. Welland will need that Saturday night win desperately since they are head and head with Dunnville for the final playoff spot.

SENIORE LEAGUE
 Lanes 2

Big Third Keeps Norval in Picture

It took a third period comeback, but Norval Alouettes have crashed the win column in their Georgetown Industrial Hockey League semi-final series with Mac's Milk.

Alouettes scored four times in the third period Sunday to edge the milkmen 5-4. Mac's leads the best of five series two games to one.

Norval was on the brink of elimination entering the third period down 3-1, but Mac's Milk managed just one goal in the last stanza while Alouettes caught fire.

Bob Monckton counted two goals for the winners with single Norval goals came from Terry Hay, George Poulson and Ray Inglis. Gary Boyce was the big man in the Mac's Milk attack with a goal and three

North Halton Curling News

By Cynthia & Gord Partridge
Mackenzie Trophy Won
 By Broomhead Foursome

Saturday was the last ladies' club bonspiel for the season and 38 ladies competed for the Mackenzie trophy. The rink skipped by Bette Broomhead with Gail Sparks, vice; Doris Duff, second; and Ann Devereux, lead, finished first in the second draw and had the top points over the two draws to win the trophy.

Finishing first in the first draw was Helen Archer, skip; Cynthia Partridge, vice; Jane Burrows, second; and Pam Cowan, lead. Second in the 1st draw was Marion Sinton, skip; Joan Brander, vice; Velda Carlo, second and Dorothy Allen, lead.

Third place was won by Lorraine Purcell, skip; Lorna Elliott, vice; Anne Meal, second and Eileen Manley, lead. The team skipped by Ethel Murdy with Nora Ford, vice; Shirley Hoffman, second and Peggy Fisher, lead, in the first game with Arlene Hopkins, lead in the second game, finished up in second place in the second draw and the team of Hilda Earle, vice; Doreen Georffreda, second and Carol Lushy, lead, with Fay Heathwaite skipping in the first game and Norma Wilson skipping in the second game ended up in third place, in the second draw.

This must have been Bette Broomhead's lucky week because she skipped her team of Marion Sinton, vice; Gail Sparks, second, and Doreen Georffreda, lead, to the first place spot in the second draw in a ladies' spiel at Erin.

The curling season is rapidly drawing to a close so you had better make the most of it by signing up for the half and half bonspiel with the Pajama Dance at night. I understand there is still a limited number of spots for curling left, so contact Lloyd Mainprize and sign up. The dance promises to be the usual snash hit so bring some friends and come on out to the club on Saturday night.

We are very fortunate to have such hard working committees trying to make the socials and bonspiels a success. They are working for you, so how about supporting them?

JOHN BOYCE
 Georgetown Raiders defense player John Boyce may miss at least one game as the result of an injury suffered in Tuesday night's game in Dundas.

assists. Bob Harrison scored twice and Bill Gregory once. The series continues this Sunday morning.

COLGAIN SWEEP
 North Halton Cougars earned a rest this weekend when they crashed Glen Williams in three straight games. The clincher was a 3-2 squeaker last Sunday in which Jack Gaudson scored a pair of Cougars goals. The other belonged to Dwayne Hay.

Glen Williams' marksmen were Doug Hills and Howie Coutout.
