

Waiting and Hoping for Georgetown's Chappel Rink

by RALPH HAWES
A roast beef dinner, top entertainment, a prize of $1,000, all that plus 20 extra prizes are available on Friday, April 6.

Another big date to remember is Saturday March 24 when our lady regional dart trophy holders hope to retain that trophy for another year when they take on all comers at Branch 120 be sure to be on hand to cheer the auxiliary darters to victory.

What a weekend! Rain, snow, and bitterly cold winds from 25 to 50 miles per hour. All this contributed to the lack of participants at the air cadet's fun day of social darts, cribbage and euchre.

The writing was on the wall at mid-day when phone calls started coming in from Erin, Cooksville, Brampton, etc. "Sorry, won't be able to make it, weather conditions too bad."

However, in spite of a late start, those sturdy souls that made it had themselves a good fun time. The lunch prepared mainly by the air cadet ladies, was wonderful, winners of the day's activities were R. Morefield, J. Markham, J. Postlewaite, and A. Grieve, darts. With S. Gisy and F. Forier winning the euchre.

EIGHT OF NINE

At the invitational cribbage held in Cooksville on Saturday.

STARTS APRIL 30

Farmstead Improvement Entries are Rolling In

Approximately $1500 to $2000 has been collected for the Farmstead and Rural Home Improvement Competition prizes, says Bruce McClure the committee secretary. Cash prizes will be given to the top two thirds of each of the three classes, which are: Farmsteads; Rural Homes; and Farmsteads already improved.

"Applications are coming in all the time", says Mr. McClure. Pamphlets are distributed at Farm meetings. The response has been better from the farmsteads, then from the rural home.

"This is the case because rural homeowners wouldn't attend a farm meeting and it would be impossible to mail applications", says Mr. McClure. He added that there are approximately 30 entries in the Farmstead Class at the present time.

TAKE PICTURES

April 30 is the starting day of the contest and the judge will be around to the properties taking pictures. Another picture is taken in one year's time. The contest is run on the amount of improvement, a before and after contest. The third class competition will have only one one team from Georgetown was among the 30 entries, and, yes, you've guessed it Roy Rudiger, and John Ferguson, of the Imperial Ways and Means, came up with a ways and means to win eight out of nine and return to Branch 120 with a trophy, plus a little more cash than they left the Branch with.

Chairwoman Doris Chamberlain of Branch 120 Car Club still awaits the permit for the 8th draw. Have faith, those at Queen's Park move slowly but they do move, and membership cards or tickets could be available at any time.

STEAKERS

The weather did nothing to the Friday night darts where Gord, W. and M. King passed out steaks to H. Nicholson, K. Pearson, A. Panchenko, L. Cross, M. Hedley, H. Waites, R. Lincoln, and J. Carney.

Every branch was represented at the zone B7 General Meeting at Branch 82 Port Credit on Sunday where at the close of the zone business the election of zone and deputy zone commands took place.

Norm Ward and Ralph Hawes were nominated for the office of zone commander. Both indicated they would stand for the office. We were honoured and very proud that the membership chose your truly as zone B7 Commander for the next two years.

We believe we are the fourth commander from Branch 120

The late J. F. (Dutch) McCartney, the late Leslie Clark, and David Capperauld who has advanced in the command to become 2nd vice president Ontario Provincial Command were also Zone Commanders.

Several members were nominated for deputy commander. Bernie Greenfield of Cooksville and Andy Meehan of Milton. Both past presidents, made a race of it with Bernie being named the zone deputy.

Zone B6 Commander Harold Rea, and his deputy Del Roth conducted the election.

WEATHER AGAIN

Also on Sunday the Branch 120 curlers were in Toronto to take part in the preliminaries. Because of the inclement weather the laying of a wreath at the cenotaph was cancelled.

An act of remembrance took place at the Legion branch.

The ladies auxiliary of Zone D-2 had a busy time sewing crests on to forty sweaters.

The Georgetown rink will curl with P.E.I. Monday a.m. Saskatchewan p.m. Tues. British Columbia a.m. Quebec p.m. Wed. Nova Scotia a.m. New Brunswick p.m. Thurs. Alberta a.m. Newfoundland p.m. Fri. Manitoba a.m.

Monday we were fortunate in seeing the 120 rink win over P.E.I. 5-1, and in the afternoon another 5-1 win over Saskatchewan.

As this goes to press we await results of the next four days with fingers crossed.
