3's a Lucky Number for Peterboro Bantams

The tournament is over but the excitement lingers on for six weeks or so for the International Hockey Tournament in Harry Levy.

The grand champions, Peterborough Red Wings, whose work on the tournament probably cost them $4,000 but judging by the crowds it will pay for itself in a year," Levy told The

Cougars Two Pounces From Industrial Crown

North Halton Cougars moved to within two wins of the 1972-73 Georgetown Industrial Hockey League championship Sunday when they mauled Mac's Milk 7-1. It was the second straight final series victory for Cougars who are undefeated in playoff competition. They eliminated Glen Williams four-straight in the semi-finals.

The teams played a scoreless first period, but Cougars started finding the range in the middle period when they built a 2-0 lead.

The third game will be played this Sunday - April Fool's Day.

League officials joined the Georgetown Referees Association members in handling some of the whistle duties. Referees Bryan Lewis and John McCauley and linesman Leon Stickle, all former Tri-County officials, took time out to be part of the huge army of volunteers who toiled to insure the tournament's success -- for the 13th time.

tended to 7-0 in the third period before the milkmen saved themselves from a shutout. Joe Widdus got the lone goal for the losers from John Parks and Bill Haynes.

Dwayne Hay and Jack Kemshead each scored two for Cougars. Single goals were registered by Ron Lane, Al Arnold and Jack Gudgeon.

Gudgeon assisted on four of the goals. Dwayne Hay on three, and Lance Doucette was in on two.

Gilbert's Overtime Goal Puts Raiders Two Games Up

A spectacular dime novel type finish to the second game of the Ontario Intermediate A final series in Port Colborne Tuesday night has given Georgetown Raiders a 2-0 lead in games.

Raiders, who won the first game handling here Sunday night, trailed 4-3 with less than a minute left in the third period Tuesday night when coach Gerry Inglis yanked goalie Keith Pallett to ice a sixth skater and the usually futile manoeuvre paid off.

Paul Robinson knotted the score at 19:4 from a scramble forcing a sudden death overtime period.

Georgetown used only five seconds of it to win 5-4.

TOM GILBERT
Raiders Junior Tibbetts won the faceoff drawing back to rearguard Bill Currie. The Georgetown MVP selection, found Tom Gilbert streaking toward the Port Colborne blue-line and the Raider forward took five strides to become the game's hero. He fooled goalie Rob Stewart with a flip shot.

WHITTLED
Sailors had the home town crowd thinking the series was deadlocked after one period when they led Raiders 4-1. Georgetown had whittled it to 4-3 by the end of the second stanza.

Sailors had a 3-0 lead before Blake Inglis scored the first of a pair from captain Neil Cotton and Terry Holmes.

A see-saw second period, in which both net minders were standouts, included Inglis' second goal from Paul Robinson and Gord Thompson, and Raiders' third, Doug Selby the marksman from Bob Larmand and Gilbert.

But the momentum had shifted to Raiders with Selby's goal and it was a case of Georgetown vs the clock from that point. They dominated the third period with a big territorial edge, but it took the last minute dramatics to even the count.

VOCAL EXPLOSION
The Georgetown supporters who made the trip just about lifted the arena shingles with their vocal explosion after the tying goal, but winner just about duplicated Jerico.

Gallinger scored twice. Teedy and Green once each for women and some Girl Guides who canvassed door to door, and by mail; with an assist from pupils of Herb Campbell School at Victoria.

The canvass campaign accounted for $1828; the children donated a total of $214; and the campaigners estimate that a total of $160 received by mail last year will be equalled or exceeded this year. Returns are still coming in from this.

Mrs. Betty Hull was Georgetown organizer.

Her assistants include Mrs. Siena Van Hoekelen, Mrs. Sophie Eckroth, Mrs. Rita Baird, Mrs. Marilyn Micklethwaite, Mrs. Barbara Haggerty and her Guide Company, Mrs. Beulah St. Andrews, Mrs. Shirley Ronald, Mrs. Dorothy Scallen, Mrs. Muriel Barr, Mrs. Helen Reid, Mrs. Marion Munro and Mrs. Carolyn Agnew.

the Sailors. Raiders had little difficulty in claiming the open game of the best of seven series 7-3 here Sunday. They did all their scoring in two periods while Sailors managed only a goal a frame. Blake Inglis had another two goal night, while the rest of the Georgetown scoring came from John Boyce, Tom Gilbert, Jim Blair, Dave McMenemy and Paul Robinson. Goss, Larochelle and Deruiter put pucks past Pallett. AGAIN TONIGHT The third game is scheduled for Port Colborne tonight with game four in the Georgetown Arena Friday night. If a fifth is needed it will be here Sunday night, a sixth in PC April 3, and a seventh here April 4. The tight schedule is aimed at allowing the Ontario champs to progress toward a Canadian title.
