

LEAPIN' LEARNERS

The newest club spawned by Georgetown Y is a men's volleyball club which got underway at the high school last week. The initial turnout was small but a Y spokesman said they expect the club will grow rapidly. Getting in some first night practice are Peter Jones and John Graham-Smith, on this side of net, and Dan Prowse and Horst Wisemann.

NORTH HALTON CURLING NEWS

Ethel Murdy Rink Wins the Reneholme

Last week brought to a close the Ladies Competitive Curling when the eight teams competed for the Reneholme and Sheardown trophies.

Winners of the first event and Reneholme Trophy was Ethel Murdy with Dorothy Hill, Marilyn Barber and Doreen Geofreda. Runners-up and winners of the Sheardown Trophy was Vivian Kruger with Lorraine Pursel, Doris Zilio and Eileen Manley. Finishing first in the second event was Audrey Symmes with Joan Ewan, Lou Morefield and Lena Burns.

Second place in the second event was taken by Marion Smeaton with Gail Sparks, Bobbie Phillips and Marianne Leggate.

TWO RINKS OF BUSINESS GIRLS were in out of town bonspiels. In the Silver Stone bonspiel in Barrie, Maria Douglas with Peggy Treacy, Shirley Hoffman and Beth Anderson were runners-up in the second draw and in a bonspiel at Orillia. Fifth prize was won by Emily Gardhouse, Myrle McCauley, Hilda Hoyt and Joan File.

THE CORNELIUS MIXED BONSPIEL is ready to roll. This is the last bonspiel before the ice is taken out and the curling season at North Halton is officially over and prizes given out at the closing dinner on April 28. It would be nice if we could have 100 percent attendance at the dinner so mark your calendars now.

Boyce, Parks Stop Cougars March

North Halton Cougars were held to one goal Sunday as Mac's Milk chucked up their first victory of the Georgetown Industrial Hockey League championship series. Mac's won 2-1 but still trail the best of seven final series two games to one.

Two first period goals, by Bill Gregory from Gary Boyce, and John Parks from Bob Harrison and Kevin Hickey gave the milkmen a 2-0 lead which stood until Dwayne Hoy's goal in the third. Jack Kemshead and Brent Telford assisted on the Cougar's lone marker.

The loss was the first of the playoffs for North Halton who swept their semi-final series with Glen Williams. Mac's upset the Norval Alouettes to gain the finals. Game four of the current series goes this Sunday morning in the Memorial Arena.

ALLEYWAYS World Bantam, National Senior Tourneys Loom

The tournaments for our Youth Bowlers are not over yet. This Saturday, two Bantam Teams, one girls and one boys team, will travel to Sportman's Bowlerama in Guelph to compete in the 18th annual World Bantam Bowling Championships. Our teams bowl at 5 p.m. which is the last shift. Our Bantams are counting on lots of support!

STAR TOURNEY This Saturday at 3 p.m. and Sunday at 12 p.m. are the last shifts of qualifying for the Toronto Star Singles Tournament. Two boys and two girls in each of the 10 age categories will represent Georgetown Bowl at the finals in Scarborough on May 12 and 13.

OTHER TOURNEYS Three other Youth Tournaments besides those mentioned above are coming soon. April 14-17, Georgetown's Senior Boys Team will compete in the National Youth Bowling Championships in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. Many supporters will also be taking the trip.

On Saturday, April 28, the finals of the Pepsi-Cola High School Championships will take place. Two Georgetowners, Chris Burke and Dave Warman are on Central Ontario's boys team which is to be coached by Georgetown master bowler Charlene MacCormack.

On Sunday, April 29, two Georgetown teams will bowl in Hamilton for the Y.B.C. All Group Championships - as defending champions. Each team will consist of a boy and girl from each of the three age divisions, Bantam, Junior and Senior, for a total of six bowlers.

SPRING LEAGUE I would like to remind our bowlers of the teen Spring League which will be run from May to early July. For further information and registration, see the front desk at Georgetown Bowl.

League Bowling PEEWEES Two great battles for high averages are being fought in our Pee Wee division. For the girls Tricia Ross is high with 97. Sheila Prouse and Debbie Dwyer are in a tie for second with 96 each. Close behind at 95 is Kelly Leonard.

David Garton is the top boy with a 94 average, and right behind is Philip Handy with 93. Mighty Mice defeated Bing Bongs in every game. Slow Pokes were shipped in all three games by Pip Squeaks.

TEAM STANDINGS—Pip Squeaks 61; Slow Pokes 30; Mighty Mice 16; Bing Bongs 11.
