at a dance in the armoury at night.

The only criticism voiced by the contestants was the charging for the hot drinks at the hospitality room. "Who's going to have change in their pockets after coming down the river?" was the complaint.

The river was patrolled by safety boat during the race and after its completion to make sure nobody was stuck on the banks anywhere.

Jaycee Paul Atkinson was chairman of the race, with Bill Jennings in charge of safety, and Eli Jones the starter.
