Mrs. Lloyd Marshall Honoured At Institute Annual Meeting

Those that were present at the community centre on Tuesday evening April 2 had the opportunity to see the latest styles for spring and summer. The audience were delighted with the fashion show put on by the Bettianne fashions of Georgetown.

There wasn't a dull moment as the beautiful models appeared one after the other in lovely pant suits, three piece knit outfits, sun suits, and little cotton summer dresses. To add interest were the young teenagers, two young men appeared at different times looking very smart wearing the latest fashions for men. Plaids seem to be very popular this year.

Right after the intermission the 4-H Homemaking girls modelled their outfits that they recently completed in the course "Sewing with Knits" great credit is due the girls, as some had never sewn before. Linda O'Connor commented on each girl's outfit as they appeared following the 4-H girls, Bettianne's models occupied the stage again, this time in evening gowns and bathing suits.

Soft music was played during the whole show and the flower garden setting on the stage completed a very entertaining evening. Bettianne had donated a $10 voucher and there were two other lucky draws. Mrs. Pabst of the community centre conducted the draws and before closing thanked all for the time and effort they had given which made the night a success. Coffee and cookies were served and many took the opportunity to look at the garments which had earlier been modelled.

Mrs. Lloyd Marshall was hostess for the annual meeting of the W.I. A long table was set up in the dining room and members met for a pot luck luncheon at 12.30. When the meal was over and before the meeting got underway Mrs. Jesse McEnery, past president, rose to say she had a very pleasant duty to perform. She went on to say that one of the charter members was never in the limelight, never wanted to take high office, but was a source of strength to the institute as a whole. She has been on the welfare and phoning committee for several years and never shirked a job which was her duty to do.

Mrs. McEnery was speaking of Mrs. Lloyd Marshall. Mrs. Marshall completely taken by surprise was asked to accept an institute cup and saucer as a token of appreciation for years of service to the branch.

Mrs. Marshall was almost speechless, but said a sincere thank you and showed much pleasure at receiving the gift.

The business of the meeting then got underway. When the main business had been dealt with, the annual reports were given first by the standing committees, followed by the report from treasurer, secretary and the nominating committee.

Treasurers report showed it had been a very active and profitable year. The public relations officer listed the activities in detail and it was felt that with a membership of just 13 much had been accomplished. Mrs. McLean vacated the chair and asked past-president Mrs. Jesse McEnery to read the installation ceremony for the slate of officers for 1973-74.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Loughman who celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary on Friday of last week.

Sorry to hear little Ashley

Bird had to spend a few days in hospital last week, we're glad he responded to treatment and hope his usual good health will return very quickly.

The beautiful basket of flowers placed in the church on Sunday were in memory of the late Henry Hills.

Mrs. Himes of Toronto was a visitor on the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lawr.

The Cubs Dance at the community centre on Saturday night did not have a large crowd but those attending report a good time.

Mrs. K. W. Hvedehave had her little grand-daughter Christine Freeman spend the weekend with her. Christine celebrated her 5th birthday April 5. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corey Freeman, whose home is in Brampton, visited with Mrs. Hvedehave on Sunday and Christine returned home with them.
