Tykes Tie Exhibition
Three weeks of practices have produced the following line-up for the Georgetown All-Star Tyke Baseball Team. Mike Hartley, Mike Makovnyk, Brian Ellis, Danny Reynolds, Dwayne Hatcher, Gary Stockfish, Lance Doucette, Glenn Cunningham, Paul Wilson, Steve Frawley, Mike Doucette, Jamie South. Coaches will continue to add talent, however, and will be seeking other players to try out and will draw from the house league for exhibition games. The experience will prepare them for all-star competition next season. An exhibition game against Brampton, Friday, resulted in an 18-18 tie. At one point in the game, six of the nine Georgetown boys on the field wore last year's T-Ball crop. The all-star starts May 23 at Streetsville with the home opener May 26 against Waterdown.

Rugger Beavers Bow to Burlington
Georgetown Beavers fell 10 points behind in the first half and never recovered as they lost an exhibition game 23-12 to Burlington at Cedarvale park, Sunday. Burlington scored two tries in the first five minutes and owned a 13-12 lead at the end of the first half. Les Judge and Doug Hills accounted for all the Georgetown scoring. In the second half, Burlington added two penalty kicks and an unconverted try to complete their total. The game proved Georgetown's Les Judge still possesses an able right foot, and featured some hard tackling by Bob Fogal from his right wing position. Playing in his first game as a Beaver, Graham Dearsley tackled well and made several short tuns. "We were a bit rusty after the long winter layoff, but we have the basis for a very solid team," Beaver Sandy Muckenzie said afterwards. The team's next game will be in Burlington, May 26.

Falcons to Fly In This Campaign

After one season in the Toronto and District Second Division Soccer League, Georgetown Falcons, due to league realignment find themselves playing their league opener this Sunday as a First Division member. Falcons are one of 11 teams which comprise the League. They will play 20 league fixtures and compete in the Ontario and Conso events. Georgetown opens with a game against Montpelone at the Hansa ground in Brampton. This is scheduled as a Falcons home game, but is shifted to Brampton because of a delay in readying the Cedarvale pitch.

A.R.C. INDUSTRIES
A bowling banquet will be held in the near future for the trainees from the A.R.C. Industries, Hornby, to wind up their season's bowling. It is with regret that the season is over but they will be looking forward to the fall when they will again try for those strikes and spares. Friday saw the last games played with the ladies high single of the week going to Gail Martin with her 117 game. She also took the high double with 223. The men's high single of 148 and high double of 262 were both taken by John Tomazic. Tomorrow at 9 a.m. Georgetown's Ladies classified team will board their airplane for Calgary, where they will compete with eight other teams for the Adam's Distillers trophy in the 3rd Annual National Classified Championships. Good luck to Charlene MacCormack, Shirley Chaplin, Fay Duncan, Nadine Bradley and Monica Southon.

Esquering Pony Club Games Day

Games and a barbecue comprised the Esquering Pony Club's first games day held at Alregis Farm, R.R.1, Glen Williams, Sunday. Alregis Farm is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Spence. The Esquering Pony Club was organized last year with 30 members and received its charter in January. A monthly series of lectures and trips was held during the fall and winter. The club sent its first team to a Regional Quiz at Guelph earlier this year and achieved 4th place. Gillian Paul of the club was 5th highest individual. An auction of horse equipment and some livestock at Pen-Y-Lane farm last month was successful and will be held annually. Pen-Y-Lane is the farm of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilcox.

Royalettes Overwhelm Burlington

Georgetown Royalettes pulled a surprise exhibition game against the highly-rated Burlington girls 24-14, Saturday night. The pitching of Laura Wilkes and Barb Curry plus the big bats of Diane Marshall, Debbie Hamilton and Brenda Smith gave the Legion-sponsored Royalettes the win. Royalettes will play in Peel Girls Softball Association this season as a Midget club.

Hunters Are Hunting For Fastball Field

Georgetown's entry in the Halton Fastball League, the Hunters are looking for a diamond to play their home opener on. The Hunters were slated to use the new illuminated field in the fairgrounds for their May 28 home opener against Glen Williams, but manager George Balasko told The Herald this week he expects it won't be ready in time. The Halton Fastball League includes Georgetown, Hornby, Palermo, Oakville, Proctor, Streetsville and Glen Williams, who played in the Inter-County circuit last season.

The bike is a little big, but four year old Corrie McIlwrick, is delighted to be the winner in a draw held by the Georgetown Market Merchants Association during carnival days. Mrs. Lea McIlwrick and Jack Pieterse of the Merchants Association watch as Corrie tries to reach the pedals.

All Breeds Calf Club

The All Breeds 4-H Dairy Calf Club meeting was held at Rock Ella Jersey Farm, Hornby, recently. President Ken McNabb opened the meeting with the 4-H Pledge. Ken Ella described the judging points of a Jersey cow to all of the members. The members had two classes to judge, a three year old, and a four year old, with reasons following. Both seniors and juniors had a lesson. Bruce McKeown thanked the Ella family for the use of their farm and the refreshments.
