CAMPERS GIVE WHEELCHAIR

Sandy Lorrinan of R.R.5 of Georgetown, a victim of cerebral palsy, is now the proud owner of a new wheelchair given to her by Georgetown Fireflies Camping Club, a chapter of the Canadian Family Camping Federation. Al Ilice, president of the Fireflies, made the presentation last week. The wheelchair was purchased by the club through cash register receipts from Dominion Stores.

Meet Your Police

CST. WM. CUNNINGHAM

First Class Constable William Cunningham has been Georgetown Police Department's Court Officer since last fall. His job consists of assisting the Crown Attorney in the processing of criminal charges, plus all the gathering of information and processing of information that these duties encompass.

Constable Cunningham joined the Georgetown Police Department in December of 1966 as a cadet. He was promoted to the rank of Probationary Constable in February 1968 and after going through the progression of rank was promoted to first class Constable in February of 1971. He attended the Ontario Police College in Aylmer in November of 1970 and took an advanced course there in January of this year.

The fourth generation of the Cunningham family in Georgetown, he was born February 23, 1947. He graduated from Georgetown and District High School and held a part time job at Dominion Seed House prior to joining the force. He is married and has one child. His wife plays in the Georgetown Girl's Pipe Band. His father is Jack Cunningham the recently retired District Fire Chief of the Georgetown Volunteer Fire Department. Constable Cunningham is a member of the fire department, on call in his off duty hours.
