Council Opens Building Tenders
The opening of several tenders took place Monday night at Esquising Council. The first were construction tenders for work on the 8th Line. They received seven tenders, leaving the consulting engineer for the township the high estimate.
There were four tenders for bridges and construction on the Sixth Line, which was estimated by the consulting engineer as taking 30 working days to complete, by the consulting engineer. Tender decisions will be made next Monday night.
The road superintendent received one tender for their new 11-ton truck and council decided they wouldn't accept one tender. The road superintendent had two tenders for two sand and salt spreaders, each machine averaging in the area of $3000. The road superintendent was asked by Esquising council to search out more tenders for the truck.

BALLINAFAD
Sorry to hear Richard Shortill Sr. is a patient in the Georgetown hospital. We sincerely hope he responds to treatment.
Mrs. Catharine French is recovering from recent surgery at Guelph General Hospital.
The U.C.W. catered to a banquet for the Junior Farmers on Saturday night, after the banquet the group met at the hall for entertainment.
There was a happy gathering at the Community Centre on Sunday when the Hulls family met for its annual reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hulls and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Burnett had arranged an interesting program. Races for all ages from the tiny tots to the grandparents were enjoyed. There was a ball game in progress later in the afternoon. Fortunately the rain held off until supper time when about 70 sat down to a wonderful meal served buffet style.
Ken Hulls was spokesman and announced that the committee had a few relaxing contests planned for all to take part in. A prize of a beautiful orchid grown by Mr. Rush of Milton was won by Mel Reid of Leamington for having the lucky plate. He presented it to his favorite sister-in-law who is also an ardent lover of flowers, Mrs. Edith Smith.
Name tags were all put in a hat and the lucky winner was Mrs. Margaret Preston.
One game that caused much merriment was Passing the Hot Potato. Each one caught with the article as it passed round the table at a given time was asked to do something.
Everyone was asked to sign the guest book.
Relatives were present from St. Catharines, Leamington, Mississauga, London, Ajax, Milton, Exeter, Milton, Acton and Ballinafad.
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swann and Kevin of St. Catharines and Miss Beverly Swann of Exeter visited at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith on Sunday.
Nancy Shortill was in Toronto last Wednesday at the Conservatory of Music. She was

NORVAL
Norval United Church Junior Choir entertained at Peel Manor, Brampton, when they presented a musical program last week. The program was much enjoyed by the older folk. Leaders of the choir are Mrs. Rosie Landlaw, Mrs. Glenn Landlaw and Mrs. Judy Pomeroy.
Rev. Gordon Williams of St. Paul's United Church, Brampton, was the guest speaker at Norval United Church Couple's Club meeting held in the church last week. He gave an interesting talk on his work with young people followed by a discussion and question period.
Friends and neighbors of Dr. A. Forbes of Draper Street were sorry to learn of his death on Saturday in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. He retired to the village 26 years ago and made many friends in the community.
Mrs. Lynda Swackhamer returned home from a week in Mississauga Hospital.
Mr. Garnet Coates is a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, and Mrs. Mona Fishburn is a patient in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital.
Get well wishes are extended to them all.
The 125th anniversary service of Norval Presbyterian Church was held Sunday. Assisting Rev. Howard Smith as guest speaker was Rev. W. A. Douglas B.A. B.D. of Meadowdale. Mr. Douglas is an Ontario Probationary Officer and supplied in the Norval-Union churches during 1970 before the arrival of Mr. Smith. The theme of his sermon was "Looking Unto Jesus".
Special music was provided by soloist Miss Brenda McNeill and the Norval choir under the direction of the organist Mrs. W. Mulder.
Norval Presbyterian Church WMS met at the home of Mrs. Robert Crawford, Sr. with Mrs. Hyatt McClure presiding. —Mrs. Ed McLean.
