WO Rick Peters and F-Sgt.

Russell Brown have each won a living scholarship and will undergo six weeks of training at CFB London, Ont. Upon successful completion, each cadet will receive his private pilot's licence. All expenses are paid by the Air Cadet League of Canada. Sgt. Peter Hope has been awarded a technical training course, to be held at CFB Borden. The WI met in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thursday nine members and 11 visitors attending. President Mrs. Frank Brown chaired the meeting. She called for two minutes silence in memory of the provincial director Mrs. George Henderson who had passed away on Wednesday, and led in repeating the Lord's Prayer. Conveners of standing committees each read an appropriate item. Convener of education and community activities, Mrs. A.W. Benton, who had arranged the program, called on guest speaker, Elizabeth Wilkes Hoey, an artistic craftsman Mrs. Hoey had arranged a large display of her crafts,

She preserves native forefathers' tools and utensils and Indian symbols on towels, cards etc. She showed the use of wool from the fleeces of her own sheep to the woven garments. She ended by demonstrating tile making from painting on the raw tiles ready for firing. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson of Bryson City, N.
