

East Meets West In Asiatic Store

East meets west at Main Street south, in a new store filled with exotic imports from the Philippines, China, and Japan. The name of the store Asiatic Products Distributor, tells the story.

Wood carvings, handcrafted in the Philippines, wall hangings and beaded curtains create the atmosphere of the gourmet. Preserved jackfruit, mangoes, pill nuts, crabmeat paste made from tiny Pacific crabs, and preserved coconut, are available to tempt the adventurous palate.

THE JAPANESE motif is complete with Delia Rodriguez, owner of the new Asiatic Products Distributor store at 26, Main St. S. modelling a kimono, and holding a Saki decanter and tiny cup. These are only two of the many items from the far east and the Philippines on sale at the new store.

OWNER OF Asiatic Products Distributor, Delia Rodriguez and daughter Nancy, show a wood carving made in the Philippines, of a tray filled with bananas, mangoes, and guava. All the wood carvings in the newly opened store at 24 Main St. South, come from the Philippines, the native land of the owners.

Cyclist is a Vehicle Must Obey Rules

A cyclist is considered a vehicle under the Ontario Highway Traffic Act, and as such must ride on the right-hand side of the road, with traffic, says Constable J.H.L. Redpath, safety information officer, Ontario Provincial Police, Milton detachment.

"Can you, as a parent, guarantee that your child knows his right hand from his left?" asked the constable. "In view of the number of children observed riding on the incorrect side of the road, the OPP asks you to consider carefully your answer to this, and other, questions."
