

Slickers Have Lead In Powderpuff Ball

Slickers continue to set the pace in the Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff Football League. In games last week, Slickers beat L'EGGS 12-0 while Blushers topped EYELINERS 11-7. Marjory Shortill shone for the winners with three hits in three trips to the plate as well as turning in a standout effort defensively. Slickers' Joan Anderson was alert in reaching second after the catcher dropped the ball on a third strike.

A good team effort produced the Blushers' victory. Bonnie Bottomley and Linda Poyntz combined to produce a doubleplay.

Rain cancelled games scheduled for July 4, but in games June 27 Slickers edged Blushers 14-13, and L'EGGS downed EYELINERS 15-11. FIRST HOME Barbara Storch's play made her a standout for Slickers, and Bonnie Bottomley lost a losing cause by belting her first home run.

L'EGGS' Beanie Currie made a good play on a fly ball and pitched well in earning the win. Another noteworthy catch was Anne Krzak's in the outfield.

Slickers have 10 points on five wins and two losses. EYELINERS have three wins, three losses and a tie for seven points. Blushers are third with six points on three wins and four defeats, while L'EGGS trail with two wins, four setbacks and a tie, for four points.
