

Emphasis Is On Camp At Robogi Near Norval

The accent is on the "camp" at Robogi, summer-long day camp on the Sixth Line West at Norval.

And that's one reason why the camp is enjoying its biggest registration in years, according to camp director Barb Mun.

"We have a true day camp program," she says. "Not just a 'trumped-up' playground program."

That means campercraft is stressed during the four two-week sessions, which run from July 3 to Aug. 25—swimming, crafts, archery, canoeing and a Thursday night camp-out, with campers cooking their own suppers and Friday breakfast.

Unlike some day camps, there is little baseball or other organized sports. The 125 campers, aged eight to 12, are more likely to be tramping through the woods, picking wild berries.

"We teach them to build shelters, decorate their own sites, get involved in nature," Miss Mun said. "We have a

NORVAL

Elora Gorge Trip Ended Busy Season

Before ending its activities for the summer the 2nd Norval brownie pack had a busy season. Its bottle drive in May proved to be very successful and financed its camping week end at Camp Wyoka on May 18-21, the holiday weekend. They were accompanied by leaders Mrs. Barbara Neuman, Mrs. Diane Taylor, Mrs. Judy Wicket, Mrs. Jean McCormick, Mrs. Anne Smith, Mrs. Mary Lou Spittal, Mary Pettingill and Jane Collett.

Meet Your Police

May 29, a special 'fly up' ceremony was held when five brownies 'flew up' to guides. They were Jennifer Smith, Pamela Kaufman, Norma Wilson, Silvia Weismann and Donna Spittal.

A very enjoyable pool party followed with lunch was held at the home of leader Mrs. Daphne Morrow, June 11.

On the evening of June 18, the 'had a really new experience when they all went to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Mitch Hunter, picked and hulled their own strawberries and then enjoyed eating them with ice cream around a camp fire. Randy Fendley entertained them with his guitar and they all had a happy sing song after which Mrs. Hunter took them all for a hay ride around the farm.

Their special activities ended with a bus trip, June 25, to the Elora gorge where they enjoyed swimming, a short hike and hot dogs at noon. Mrs. Anne Smith assisted the leaders on the trip.

Due to the large number of brownies in the pack any little girls who wish to enrol for brownies this fall must register before the start of school in September with either Mrs. H. Neuman or Mrs. Robert L. Taylor. The first fall meeting will be held on September 10 in Norval Presbyterian Church basement. More leaders are urgently needed for the fall so if anyone is interested in assisting with the brownies please contact the leaders.

The brownies hope that you will continue to save your empty bottles as they have plans for another bottle drive to be held around the end of October.

Mrs. Barbara Neuman will be attending brownie camp as a leader at Two Lake for two weeks in August. Two guides, Leona Neuman and Cayley Greenwell will also be attending the camp at Two Lake.
