MORE THAN 10,000 SATISFIED FAMILIES LIVE IN HALLIDAY HOMES AND COTTAGES

Home buyers, builders, developers are all building The Halliday Way. Computerized manufacturing is the reason. We're geared to quality, speed and economy. Halliday's 48 models and many optional plans let us tailor a home or cottage to your taste and needs. Let us show you some Halliday Homes in your area. We'll also help you find a lot, arrange your mortgage and the sub-trades to complete your home. At Halliday Homes we build for your tomorrow. Send $1. for 32 page home catalogue and 50 cents for cottage catalogue. 551 Maple Ave. Burlington, Ont.

reteams who played in Halton and Peel and Ontario Cup play. Here are the reports from these games.
MINOR ATOM
Halton—Peel
Georgetown 1—Chinguacousy 3
This would have been a close game but Georgetown got off to a slow start and allowed Chinguacousy to score two easy goals. Mike Riddell scored the only goal for Georgetown.
MAJOR MOSQUITO
Halton—Peel
Georgetown 5—Chinguacousy 3
Georgetown really gave Chinguacousy a going over in this game with all five goals coming from Paul Morrow.

Ontario Cup
Georgetown 0—Wellands 1
Despite the score, the Georgetown goalkeeper, Jamie Clare, was the star of the game as he came up with save after save.
RANTAM
Halton—Peel
Georgetown 2—Burlington 3
This was a scrappy game which Georgetown should have won, but the breaks just weren't for them.
Ontario Cup
Georgetown 1—Westwood 3
Georgetown had the action in the first half of the game but an unlucky penalty against them caused Westwood to score. At half time it was 1-1, and in the second half Westwood got two lucky breakaways to score twice.
JUNIOR 'B'
Georgetown Gunners 1—Chinguacousy 5

Chinguacousy got two quick goals and went into the second half two goals up. Georgetown made a comeback scoring a goal, but Chinguacousy took over the game from then on. Brian Shearson scored the Gunners' only goal.

Two Clubs Continue Tourney Domination

Hillsburgh senior girls team and Rockwood midgets continued their domination of the Glen Williams minor softball tournament in the Glen park on the weekend. Each has won every year during the tournament's three year history.
The Hillsburgh senior girls won the Wheeler's Haulage Trophy by beating Hornby 31-11 in the final. Rockwood midgets captured the Gerry Nash Memorial Trophy donated by the Glen minor softball association when they took Glen Williams midgets 12-4 in the final.
In other final games, Glen Williams junior girls won the Charles Hancock Haulage Trophy by beating Lowville 13-6. Hillsburgh atoms won the Herb Louth Contractor Trophy by beating Ormagh 26-6. Glen Williams squirts won the Hillside Sand and Gravel Trophy by beating Hillsburgh 13-7. Glen Williams bantams won the Art Mierama Trophy by blanking Hornby 7-0, and Guelph juveniles won the Interscholarship Trophy and Gifts Award by downing Guelph 9-3. Games were played Saturday and Sunday.

standout with three hits in three trips to the plate, including a homerun and a triple. Joel Richardson and Jay Anderson also had good games for Maher. Mark Potruff, Cameron McIver and Rodney Wilson were Elks stickouts, while Danny King, Brian Kemp and David Doucette shone for Legion.

Ontario Place Third Outing

Tomorrow will be a big day for summer playground children when they journey to Ontario Place. It will be the third special event for the group which has already visited the science centre and Mountsberg game farm.
Six bus loads of playgrounders made the science centre trip and three bus loads went to Mountsberg, an outdoor education centre operated by the Halton Region Conservation Authority.

T-Ball Hitters Have Field Day

Legion outlasted Elks Lodge 23-21 and Maher Shoes managed a 27-25 win over Moore Construction in T-Ball League games last week.
Jeff Moore aided the Moore team's cause with a grand slam home run. And the fielding of Jeff Ronald and Doug Turner earned them special mention. Harold Branch was a Maher
