

Joanne Crawford, Gordon Williams Exchange Vows In June Ceremony

St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams, was decorated with standards of white and blue mums and white gladioli, for the marriage of Joanne Lillian Crawford, to Gordon Claude Williams, June 30.

Joanne is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford, RR1 Georgetown, and Gordon is the son of David Williams, RR1, Georgetown and the late Teresa Williams.

Rev. Richard Ruggle officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Jean Hancock was soloist and Mrs. R. Williams, organist.

The couple are living in Norway, following a honeymoon trip to northern Ontario.

The bride wore an imported gown of white organza and chantilly lace, with a soft, ruffled collar, and white satin ribbon on a fitted chantilly lace bodice. The A-line empire style gown ended in an elegant cathedral train. A Juliet cap attached to a shoulder-length veil, studded with seed pearls, completed the gown.

The bride wore a gold necklace, a family heirloom, which belonged to her great-grandmother, and a corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses. She carried a white bible, a gift of her godparents.

The three bridal attendants wore floor length gowns with empire waist, short puffed sleeves, and ruffled collar and carried baskets of white and yellow daisies.

Matron of honor Betty Gore of Brampton, and bridesmaids Valerie Ella of Hornby, and Lauren Lewis of Georgetown, wore gifts from the bride. The matron of honor received a sterling necklace with a drop pearl, and the bridesmaids received drop earrings, with the symbol of faith, hope and charity.

At the reception in St. Alban's hall, the bride's mother received in floor-length, pale pink chiffon gown with a flowing drape falling from the shoulders. A handed waistband accented the waistline. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Irene Williams, step-mother of the groom, received wearing a floor-length gown of printed, lavender pink chiffon over taffeta, with a corsage of white orchids.

Bruce Niven was groomsmen, and ushers were Jeff Crawford, brother of the bride, and Gerald Williams, brother of the groom. Ring bearer was Scott Crawford, the bride's brother.

For her honeymoon trip the bride chose a red, pleated skirt.

white blouse and navy jacket, with specks of red and white, white purse and gloves and red, white and navy shoes.

Guests of honor included Mrs. Jack Crawford, grandmother of the bride, and Dr. and Mrs. C.V. Williams, grandparents of the groom.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was feted at showers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ella, with Valerie Ella as hostess, and at the home of Mrs. William Briggs, with Mrs. Doug Sargent as hostess, and at the home of Mrs. E. Lewis, with Lauren Lewis as hostess.
