All Opposed To Proposal

Esqueusing Council Monday evening received 10 replies in correspondence about the proposed relocation of the third line by Indusium Quarries Ltd. All replies were in opposition to the relocation of the line near Indusium.

Council at a previous meeting had approved in principle the relocation of the line. Reeve Tom Hill stated that it was now up to Indusium to do its own public relations work. He said council would prohibit any action until ratepayers in the area approved.

The clerk was instructed to send the replies to Indusium and to inform the company of council's decision not to approve the move until it had the residents consent.

Andy Hughes were Moore's strikeouts. Paul Dobson, Mike Oliver and Robert Shewill sparkled for the Elks. David Doucette hit four homers for the winners as Legion beat Maher Shoes 30-27. George Osborn hit two roundtrippers for the losers. Legion also got outstanding performances from Peter Malevis, Bobby Beech, and Murray Webb, while Maher standouts were Bill Richardson, Stephen Barrager and George Osborne.
