

GRADUATE

JANE SCHENK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schenk, RRI Georgetown, received a diploma in home economics recently at convocation ceremonies at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute in Toronto.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Perry Armstrong, eight year old son of Mrs. Ellis Armstrong, returned home Sunday, after vacationing with his friend Michael, son of David Williams, at the Williams' cottage in Fenlon Falls, Lindav.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Williams, and their three children, Gwyneth, Lorna, and Glynn, have the pleasure of a visit from Brian's mother, Mrs. Jessie Williams of Bolton, Lancashire, England. She is visiting for a four month period this summer, and plans to return home in late September. This is her first visit in nine years, and Mrs. Williams said how pleased she was to see her granddaughter, Lorna, for the first time; also, her only great granddaughter, 21 month old Cheryl-Lynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Williams junior of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. R.S. McMaster of Glen Williams were recently visited by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Firth of Peterborough, and also, Mrs. Audrey Martin from Brazil.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brandt and their three children, Vincent, Stephen, and Janet just returned home this past weekend after two and a half weeks of travelling south to Florida. Driving down, they stopped to visit with friends, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mooney in West Virginia, who were previously residents of Georgetown. The Brandt family spent most of their holiday travelling, sightseeing, and touring Disney World.

Seventeen-year-old Beverly Atkins, daughter of Sheila and Don Atkins, and a long-time resident of Glen Williams, returned here with a surprise visit from her home on Victoria Island, where Beverly and her family have lived for the past three years. We were all very pleased to see her, and only regret, her mother's visit had to be postponed until a later date, due to illness in the family. We hope all is well now, and that we can look forward to seeing all the family in the not too distant future.

A successful meeting was held by Georgetown Pollution Probe, in the Glen town hall, Wednesday evening, July 19. —Gail M. Williamson.

BALLINAFAD

Welcome visitors to church on Sunday were former residents Mrs. J.P. Kirkwood and her son, Rev. Jim Kirkwood. Mr. Kirkwood, his wife and family, intend to return to Africa in September after spending these past few years in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connor and daughters are holidaying at Bingeman park in Kitchener.

Sorry to hear Miss Alva McKee is in hospital. We sincerely hope she will have a complete recovery soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Harper, and Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Jones, who are visitors in the neighborhood, were at Rockton on Sunday where they visited the African Safari.

—Mrs. W. Smith

SILVERWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. E. Beeny enjoyed a holiday in Haliburton recently and did some fishing.

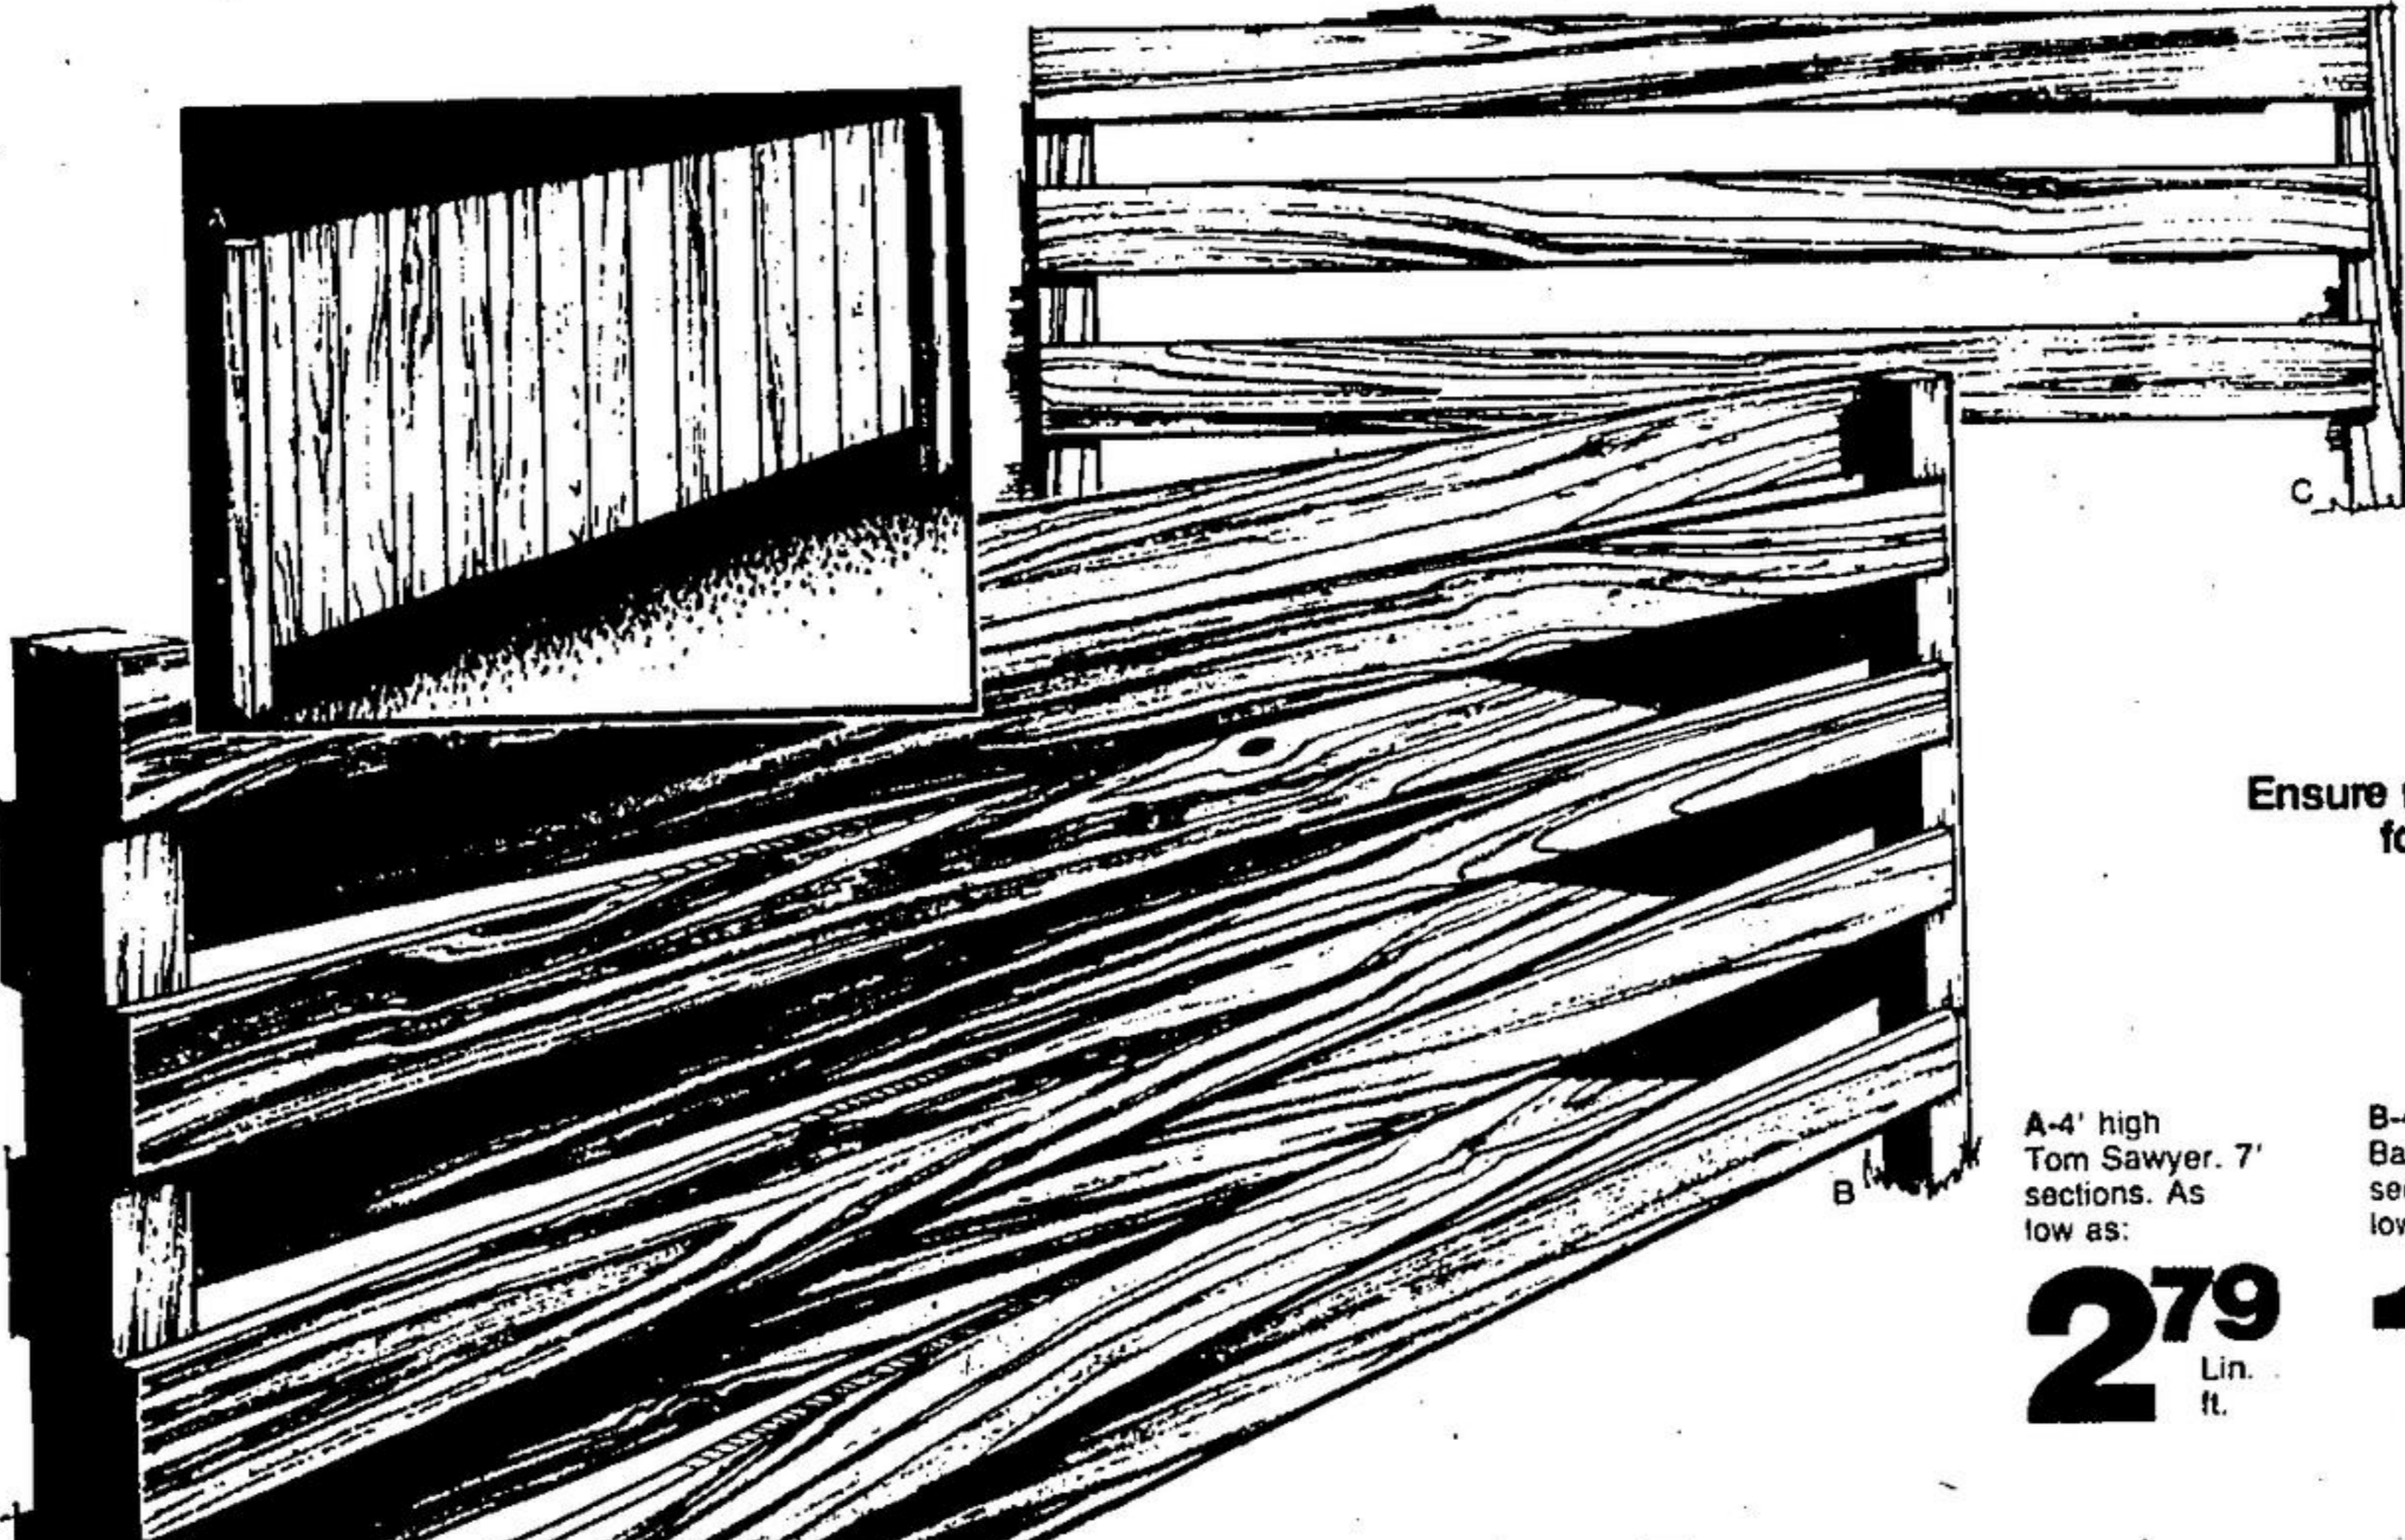

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson became the proud grandparents of a granddaughter this past week after six grandsons.

Mr. Paul Beeny, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. Beeny, set out on the Bruce Trail July 19 alone. He went as far as the Forks-of-the-Credit and back home by July 24, but next time will take a companion.

Lots of showers added up to 60" of rain and ended the drought at Silverwood.
