Peewees Take Part In Brampton Games

Starting Friday night Aug. 3 of the holiday weekend the W.T. Moore Construction peewees began the climb to the final game of the consolation round of a Brampton tournament. In the first game on Friday night the boys came up against Heron Park from West Hill. In a tight contest Heron Park won 4-3. This loss dropped the Georgetown team into the consolation round. In a losing cause the combined efforts of John Barnes and Darren Kuchmach struck out 11 batters. Final line scores for this game, were Georgetown, three runs, six hits and four errors; for Heron Park, four runs, four hits and two errors. Second game was an 8-4 win over Oakville on Saturday afternoon. This game was highlighted by the batting of Steve Basto two for four, Greg Abbott two for three and Dave Townsend two for three. Again, John Barnes' pitching effort was good for only six hits by Oakville. Line scores for this game, Georgetown 10 hits, two errors, and eight runs; Oakville, six hits, four unusual, three errors. In the semi final, we again met an old rival in Dundas. This game was a 5-2 win for Georgetown. Leading at the plate in this game were Kevin Dunais, two for two; Ron Sguigna, two for four, and Darren Kuchmach, two for three. Kuchmach's pitching effort in this game saw a one-hit, no-run contest through six innings. In the seventh, Oakville came up with its two runs on two hits and a walk. Line scores for this game; Georgetown, 10 hits, six runs and one error; Oakville, three hits two runs and one error. The consolation round final game on Monday pitted Georgetown against Port Colborne, resulting in an 8-1 loss for Georgetown. The four tournament games plus a

Briggs Heads Rotary Club

Howard Briggs was installed as president of Georgetown Rotary Club in a ceremony at North Halton Golf and Country Club recently. Retiring president Paul Armstrong presented him with the president's gavel. Other officers installed for the 1973-74 term were first vice president Murray Thoms, second vice-president Frank Allan, secretary Ted Newton, treasurer Gerry Peace, and directors Al Jarvis and Lorene Stephenson.

Six members received perfect attendance pins, Ken Robertson (12 years), Murray Thoms (five years), Ralph Ursel (four years), Howard Briggs (three years), Ken Faulker (three years), and Barry Timleck (two years). Georgetown Rotarians were host to five local students and their French Canadian exchange counterparts, July 24. Rotarians Howard Briggs, Paul Armstrong, and Murray Thoms treated the students to a visit to Niagara Falls, Marineland, and other points of interest. They lunched in the revolving dining room atop the Skylon.
