

ENGINEERS ON THE JOB

NEW TOWN engineer Peter Morris, 27, makes himself at home in his new quarters in the town works building. He came here from Dundas where he was in the engineering department for two years. Prior to that, he was with the borough of Scarborough. He graduated from University of Toronto in 1969.

BEN PITONI, 27, started his duties as senior engineering assistant in the town engineering office, two weeks ago. He came here from the borough of Etobicoke, where he was also in the engineering department. He is a native of Rome, Italy, where he graduated from the Roma Polytechnic Institute. He came to Canada six years ago. (Herald Photos)

Georgetown Couples At Kinsmen Convention

Three couples from Georgetown attended the annual convention in Ottawa of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs. Attending were Georgetown club president Fred Curtis and Mrs. Curtis; Conn. and Mrs. Harry Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison.

GEORGE IRVING, George Irving of Cambridge, was elected 53rd national president of the association of Kinsmen Clubs during the organization's convention.

Irving served the national association as vice-president this past year. As national vice-president, he established through studies and surveys and a heavy schedule of public speaking, a direct communication with Kinsmen members and community leaders across Canada in order to acquaint himself with the community problems and needs.

Social & Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harley have returned after spending a two week holiday visiting with their son David in Prince Albert, Sask. He is director of Presbyterian Fellowship House in Prince Albert which accommodates teenage Indian boys who attend the local high school. While there they attended an Indian pow-wow and went to other interesting places. David made the return trip by car and will visit with his parents for three weeks after which he will return to Prince Albert by plane.

MEET YOUR POLICE

Const. W. McGrath

Constable William Michael McGrath, age 24, joined Georgetown Police Department in April, 1971, as a probationary constable. In April of this year he was promoted to the rank of second class constable.

Prior to coming to Georgetown, Const. McGrath had one year's experience with the Ontario Provincial Police at Longlac.

He has just completed recruit training at the Ontario Police College, Aylmer.

While still in school at Scarburi, he served with a militia unit there and during that time received the Centennial Medal "in recognition of valuable service to the nation."

He is married with one son and is currently living in Acton.
