Edith Glass

Edith May Glass, a resident of Georgetown, died in hospital at the age of 83.
Born Edith Simpson in Hamilton, as a young girl she went to live in Montreal, but returned to Hamilton where she lived until the age of 18.
She was married in 1912 in Calgary to Percy Glass, where her daughter, Edna, was born. The family moved to Edmonton where daughter, Aileen, was born, then resided in Windsor, until the death of Mr. Glass. At that time, Mrs. Glass moved to Georgetown where she lived until her death.
She had attended schools in Hamilton and Montreal. She was a member of the Baptist Church and remained active in women's groups until stricken by a stroke. She loved the garden, and spent many hours there, and enjoyed many friendships. She was an expert sewer and in her last few years, as her eyesight failed and she could no longer operate her sewing machine, she sewed by hand. Only last winter she spent many hours sewing for her grandchildren, and created doll outfits for her grandchildren, Tanya and Sherry Hill.
Funeral service was held at the McClure-Jones Funeral Home, 34 Edith St., with Rev. W.R. Cairns of Mountainview Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Brian Lee Hill of Georgetown, David Cooper of Tara, Robert Gary Cooper, Glen Cooper, of Glen Williams, George Glass of Durham, and Al MacGregor of London, Ont.
Children surviving are Mrs.

Percy Hill, 43 Charles St., and Mrs. George Cooper, Glen Williams. A brother, William Simpson, died in 1968.
Grandchildren surviving are Gary Cooper, David Cooper, Glen Cooper, and Brian Hill; great-grandchildren are Hobbie Cooper, Craig Cooper, Sherry Hill, Robert Hill, Tanya Hill, Jamie Cooper, Correen Cooper, Barbara Cooper, Cherry Cooper and Kevin Cooper, and great-great-grandchildren, Tara, Hobbie and Lisa.

Fiberglas is the ideal insulation for the tough Canadian climate. In winter, Fiberglas insulation cuts down on heat loss—you get greater comfort, plus you'll save on fuel and power bills. In summer, Fiberglas helps keep out uncomfortable heat penetration into your home. Fiberglas insulation helps to combat the energy crisis: sound insulation helps reduce fuel consumption. Efficient, light weight, incombustible—these are just a few of the excellent reasons you should use Fiberglas.
