

Fire Department Honor Guard For Mr. and Mrs. P. Robinson

A double ring wedding on Saturday, Aug. 4, joined in marriage Catherine Jean Wilson and Paul Leslie Wellington Robinson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wilson of Norval and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Robinson of Georgetown.

Rev. Walter Ridley performed the four o'clock ceremony in Norval United Church. Ferns, standards of mauve and white gladioli and daisies, and candelabra decorated the altar, and mauve ribbon with candles edged the pews.

Mrs. Margaret Ridley was organist, and the bride's sister-in-law Mrs. Bea Wilson was soloist and sang The Wedding Prayer before the ceremony and Sunrise-Sunset and We've Only Just Begun during the signing of the registrar.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of nylon organza over taffeta, with a wedding ring necklace, empire waistline, long wrist-length sleeve with aleon lace on bodice and neckline.

The A-line skirt of matching fabric had a detachable circular train with bow at back. Her long cathedral silk illusion veil was trimmed with matching aleon lace. She carried a cascade of white stephanotis, mauve orchids, white carnations, and mauve-tinted baby's breath with English ivy and fern accenting her gown.

Anna Zaneva of Milton was maid of honor and Susan McCalg, Huntington, Quebec, and Beth Laidlaw, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore formal gowns of lilac colored Swiss dot with a V neckline, and short, puffed sleeves.

The empire waistline was trimmed with guipre lace and featured a semi-full circular skirt. They wore large, white picture hats trimmed with matching Swiss dot. They carried deep mauve-wicker umbrellas with white daisies, miniature, mauve carnations and baby's breath and fern to compliment their lilac Swiss dot gowns.

Miss Leonne Wilson, niece of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed identically to the bridesmaids. She carried a mauve basket of white daisies and miniature mauve carnations with baby's breath.

Women Candle Ceremony Follows Hammerton-Luehof Vows

Mr. and Mrs. James Hammerton, the bride's parents, travelled from Winnipeg to witness the marriage ceremony of their daughter, Sandra Lyn Hammerton, 9 Edith St., and Rene Peter Luehof, 271 Delrex Blvd., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Luehof.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at Maple Avenue Baptist Church and conducted by Rev. H.C. Lohnes. The bride and her attendants entered the church through archways decorated with flowers while the organist, Miss Carol Kennedy, played The Hawaiian Wedding Song.

After the couple exchanged wedding vows, a candle ceremony was performed signifying that the two shall become as one.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length gown with long sleeves and a cathedral-length veil with a floral headpiece. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and white daisies. The bride wore something old antique silver ring from the late Mrs. W. Ferweda, grandmother of the groom, something new (her gown), something borrowed (a pendant from Mrs. G. Fredrickson) and something blue (her garter).

The matron of honor, Mrs. Kathleen Fletcher, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Gail Smith, cousin of the bride, Miss Sylvia Schöffelmeier and Miss Sharon Wallace were gowned alike in crepe material of a mauve and pink floral design on a pastel yellow background.

The flowergirl Miss Sandra Wallace, was dressed in a matching style dress of pink polyester crepe with the bodice made of the same design material as the bridesmaids' dresses. Each carried a nosegay of summer flowers and they wore daisies in their hair to match their nosegays.

Mother of the bride wore a turquoise gown with white-embroidered daisies on the skirt. Her corsage was yellow roses and white carnations.

The groom's mother was dressed in a mauve and white gown and wore a corsage of white daisies and deep purple status.

The groomsmen were Murray Van Halem and the ushers were Dennis Hammerton, brother of the bride, Jack Luehof, brother of the groom, and Wes Palmer. The ring bearer was master Timmy Visser, cousin of the groom.

A reception was held at the Royal Canadian Legion. Out of town guests from Winnipeg were: Mr. and Mrs. James Hammerton, parents of bride; Dennis Hammerton and Mark Hammerton, both brothers of bride, Mrs. E. Evans, aunt of bride and Mrs. G. Smith, From Hamilton came Mr. and Mrs. P. Kinach, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanton, uncle and aunt of bride, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jones, grandparents of the bride came from Simcoe along with Mr. and Mrs. E. McKenzie, uncle and aunt of the bride. From Chatham were Mr. and Mrs. John Hammerton, uncle and aunt of the bride, and R. Hammerton, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Atkinson, godmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. John Luehof, aunt and uncle of the groom came from Ajax.

Ken Calver, a close friend of the bride's family for many years, proposed the toast to the bride.

For travelling, the bride chose a black, white and red turtan suit and a corsage of white daisies and purple corn-

The country club tables were decorated in mauve, pink and white along with candelabra for table centres. Following the reception, a wedding dance was enjoyed by more than 200 friends and neighbors where the bride and groom passed their wedding cake in a large mauve-accented wicker basket.

For their honeymoon, they travelled by plane to Pompano Beach, the bride wearing a coat dress of rose and blue-striped polyester with white collar and white accessories. She wore a white cymbidium orchid with pink roses and blue status.

They have taken up residence at Riverview Court Apartments in Georgetown.

Special guests at the wedding were the groom's grandmother Mrs. Hazel Robinson, and the bride's great-aunt Mrs. Ola Robin both of Georgetown.

MOORE PARK PLAZA

Not Near Record

Despite Monday's intense heat when temperatures soared into the 90s, water consumption for the day was not a record for the year.

On Monday, 2,300,000 gallons were used by sweltering residents, but on July 24, 2,800,000 gallons were consumed.

Neither of these days was a record consumption day. In the past the gallonage has gone over 3,000,000.
