

Glen Williams

Hold Reunion For Visitors From Malta

Glen Williams Minor Ball Association standings in the Halton County League, are as follows: Atoms are just going into their finals. Squirts are still in their semi-finals, their next game being played against Limehouse. Pee-wees are going into their semi-finals, and bantams are in their finals against Hornby. The Midgets are waiting for a team to start their finals, either Hornby or Burlington.

The juveniles are still in their semi-finals. The junior girls are now in their finals and their next game is to be played against Lowville. Unfortunately, the senior girls lost out in their semi-finals, but a good effort had been displayed by all the team members.

In Ontario Rural Softball Association playdowns three teams are still going. Pee-wees and bantams have entered into the final round. Pee-wees are playing Six Nations, and the bantams will be playing Norwich. Juveniles have been playing against Uxbridge, and in their finals will be playing against Lambeth.

Mrs. Albert Dewdney was hostess this past weekend to Jessie M. Dike of Butler, Pa. Mrs. Dewdney, and Miss Dike were college roommates at Oberline, Ohio, and this was their first reunion since their graduation.

Accompanying Miss Dike, were two of her English cocker spaniels, which she entered at the two day Markham Kennel Club show. Both dogs were bred and shown to their American championship by Miss Dike, and are now one half way through to their Canadian title.

The Dicroft Kennels are becoming fairly well known in the States, and dogs of this breeding are coming under other ownership.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewdney, also had the recent pleasure of a visit by Mr. and Mrs. William Bidnell of Chilham, England.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Don Beaumont (nee Sharon Donoghue), who were recently married.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Allen, were recently visited by their good friends Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woods of Toronto.

We would like to extend our wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. Mary Latimer, of Glen Williams, who has spent the last three weeks in the Georgetown hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Fendley and family, spent a very enjoyable camping holiday at Bennett Lake, near Perth, where according to their son Ted remarked the fishing was excellent. They arrived home on Saturday Aug. 18.

Cheryl Fendley is spending two weeks visiting with her friend Shirley Ink, in Dryden, N.Y. Cheryl returns home after the Labor Day weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cacia, of the 10th Line, recently had the pleasure of a visit by Mrs. Cacia's sister, Mrs. Carmen Feneck, and son, Joseph Feneck, of Malta. A family reunion was held, followed by the arrival of two more sisters, Mrs. Mary Lou Chaffeur, and Mrs. Vickie Caterina, who motored up from California. Mrs. Feneck continued her travels to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laude of N.Y. and plans to return for another short visit before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Steinfatt, of 20 Sideroad, attended the wedding of Mrs. Steinfatt's sister, Mrs. Joyce Pass, nee Joyce Macdonald, a previous Georgetown resident. The wedding date was Saturday, Aug. 18. The groom, Glenn Pass, is from Scarborough and Joyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Macdonald are residing now in Ajax.

Ruth and Heinz Steinfatt had the pleasure of a visit by his aunt, Mrs. H. Veuhoff, who arrived July 16 and returned home Aug. 14 to Lahr, Germany.

Marg and John Haines, and friends Mr. and Mrs. Ray Massie of Brampton, recently motored to Montreal, where they had a terrific time, attending three Expo games. They travelled on to Ottawa, where they spent a day, and motored back, arriving home, a week ago Wednesday.

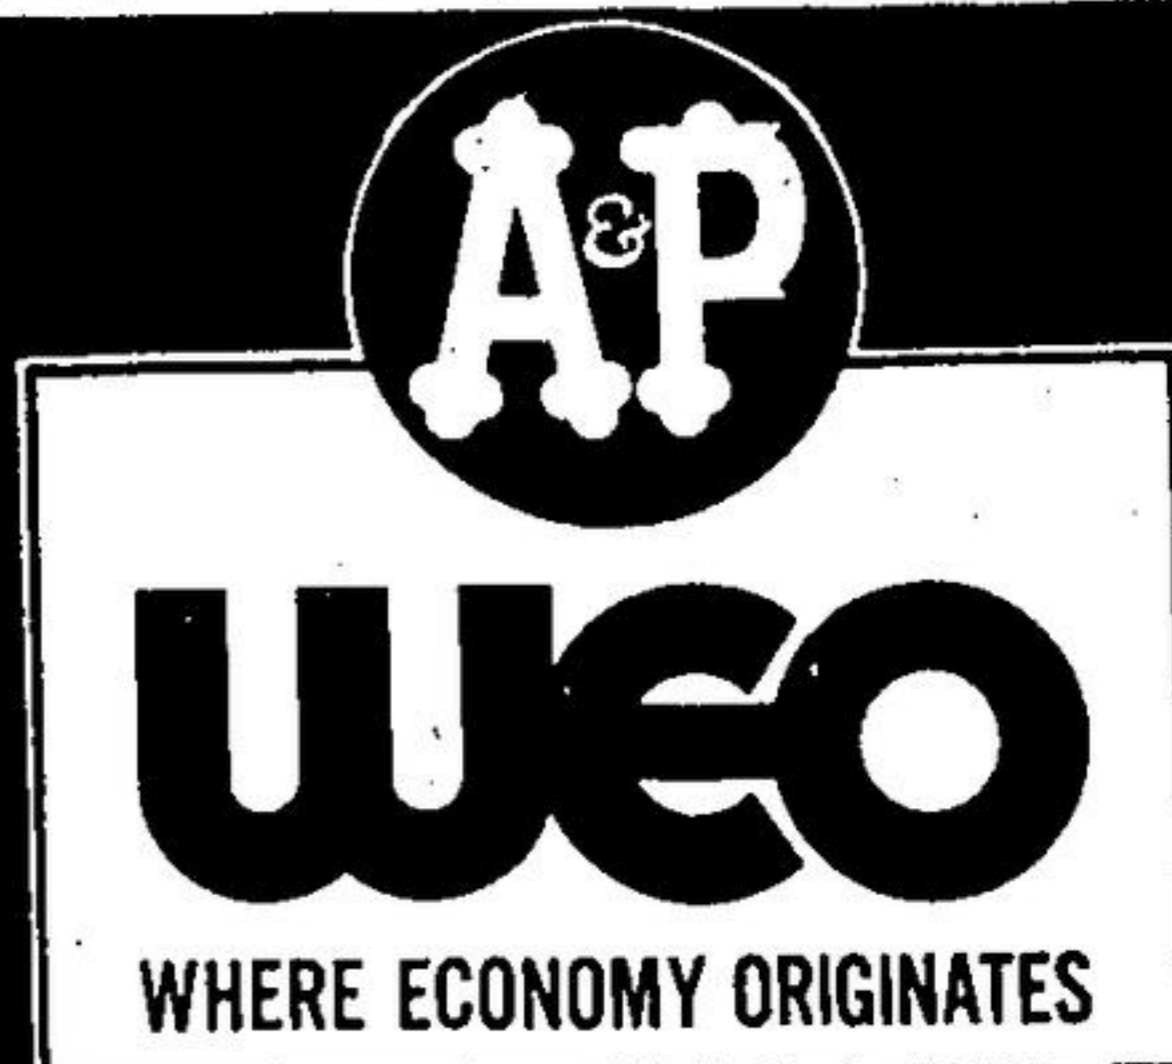

Glen Williams ladies' team hosted a tournament Sunday at the Glen ball park. Marion Hancock, catcher for the team, won the most valuable player award. It was presented to her by Mrs. V. Haines. A very successful draw for a hamper of groceries was won by Mrs. Minnie James of Georgetown.

The results of the tournament games are listed on the front page of the second section.
