Vancouver Honeymoon Follows Lusted Vows

A recent Toronto wedding united in marriage Lyn Hewson and Russel Lusted.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hewson of Georgetown, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lusted of Dauphin, Man.

The bride's gown was flocked sheer with long, full sleeves gathered to a deep, tight cuff. The floor-length skirt had a deep flounce and the neckline was edged with a ruffle of the same material. She carried a white, lace fan adorned with an orchid and stephanotis arrangement, and wore a band of stephanotis in her hair.

Kathy and Jocelyn Hewson, the bride's sisters, wore gowns of the same material in pale mauve and pale blue. They carried small cascades of cornflowers and mums.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James Guiry. Mrs. Hewson welcomed the guests wearing a pastel turquoise, mauve, and blue Georgette dress. Mrs. Lusted was in pink and white sheer. Both mothers wore white orchids.

Following a three-week trip to Vancouver, the bride and groom will take up residence in Rhode Island.
