Upholstery, Cable Jets Kinsmen Ball Champs
 Georgetown Upholstery and Cable Jets reign as queens of the Georgetown Kinsmen Girls Softball League this week after successes in a playoff tournament in the fairgrounds, Saturday.
 The Upholstery team captured the junior division title by defeating the Kinetics Krulzers in its final test, while Cable Jets topped Standard Products in the senior division final.
 The all-day tourney involved 10 junior and eight senior girls teams.
 It was also a day of individual glory. Senior and junior home-run queen trophies were presented to Nancy Poulson and Leanne Storch. Most improved player awards went to Marie Stone and Sandy Hewitt respectively.
 Georgetown Royalettes of the Peel Girls Softball League operated a refreshment booth during the tourney: Hot dogs, pop and chips were free to the members of the 18 teams.
 Each girl involved in Kinsmen ball this season received a league crest, while members of championship clubs were awarded replica trophies.
