

Police Blotter

Monday night, three Georgetown youths were arrested while driving a car reported stolen in Alliston.

Two men were charged with impaired driving this week. On Saturday, one was charged after driving erratically on Delrex Boulevard, the other was spotted Friday on Main Street.

Friday afternoon, a house at 7 Gower Ct. was broken into and $40 cash and two wrist watches stolen.

A Guelph resident was charged with possession of narcotics, Friday night.

A man was charged with indecent assault, Friday, following a complaint.

Police recovered a truck stolen from Aurora, last Wednesday. Witnesses reported seeing men running from the truck as police neared the scene.

Police are besieged by complaints of both biting and barking dogs. Three people were bitten by dogs this week.

New Director

Georgetown Choral Society started its new season under a new director last week. Howard Weedmark conducted the society's first practice in the Georgetown District High School's music room. The society is seeking tenors and basses.

Hit Park Man Gets $150 Fine

A man who assaulted a Terra Cotta Conservation staff member this summer was slapped with $150 fine in Brampton court last week.

"This will be the most expensive swim of your life," the judge commented as he levied the fine.

The assault took place after a Terra Cotta Conservation Area staffer told the accused he was swimming in a restricted area.

EFCO JOLTS CASSELMAN

Pitcher Jim King and his EFCO crew have extended their amazing playoff antics into the finals.

In the opening game of the Georgetown Industrial Fastball League final series, the team that just made it into the eighth and final playoff spot ripped Casselman Fuels 10-2.

Evidence that King's pitching has had a lot to do with the EFCO success story was the fact that Casselman's Bob Marchand who has swung a hot bat throughout the playoffs, failed to get as far as first base. Casselman reached the finals last Wednesday by handling Tokers 7-5 in the deciding game of their set.

Gerry Sproat and Bill Hall handled Casselman's hurling. Bob Cunningham and Mike Herrington did Tokers' tossing. The final series continued last night with game three likely to be set for Sunday in Georgetown Park.
