

Swim Launches Zeta Phi Year

A long, cool swim in the backyard pool of sorority sister Nancy Snider, Aug. 23, was the way Zeta Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority launched its new season. A meal prepared by the social committee followed the swim.

Sue Minchin and Carolyn Stewart put members through 10BX exercises as part of their program, the body beautiful. The program of exercises was designed for women 15 years older than the average member's age.

During the business meeting it was decided again to have a refreshment booth at the Georgetown Fall Fair.
