

IT WAS THE TRADITIONAL FIRETRUCK RIDE FOR ROYALETTES.

Royalettes Reign Over Ball League

Georgetown Royalettes rebounded from a 3-0 deficit to fashion a 9-6 victory in Streetsville, Sunday night, and win the Peel Girls Softball Association championship in the minimum two games.

A large contingent of Georgetown people was in the Streetsville crowd which watched Royalettes explode for five runs in the top of the fifth inning and never look back.

The winners' big hits came from Barb Currie, Charlene Milton, and Margo Butler who hit the game's only homerun.

Tammy King, Laura Wilkes, and Debbie Hamilton were also Royalette standouts.

Royalettes, a midget club, were playing a juvenile team in Streetsville.

This is the second year of competition for the young Georgetown girls' team, but its first in the Peel league.

Earlier this season it made it to the Ontario midget A finals, before bowing to

Senior, Semi-Pro Cuts Keep Raider Numbers Up

Georgetown Raider coach Gerry Inglis is making cuts after more than a week of surveying his 1973-74 material - but the numbers at practice haven't dropped much below the 40 mark.

The attendance is being kept high by an influx of senior and semi-pro cuts which could load coach Inglis right into a pleasant dilemma - an over-abundance of high calibre talent at some positions.

The most recent crop of new faces at Raider tryouts includes last year's senior A top scorer, a goalie from Montreal who did his puck stopping last season in the Quebec senior ranks, an Eastern Professional League, and a former Owen Sound centre.

Raider executive prefers to withhold names until the recruits have their names on playing cards.

Durham Huskies will be in town Sunday night to test Raiders in an exhibition game.

Huskies, OHA senior B semifinalists last season, have been strengthened by the addition of players from the now defunct Owen Sound senior club.
