Confidence & Support

FIVE GOLFERS tried for fourth place in the Ontario branch championship of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association, played last week at Georgetown Golf and Country Club. From the left are Gary Bowerman, Bob Panasluk, Mike Frazer, Greg Pidlaski and Terry Miskolczi. All winners received flight vouchers from the tournament sponsoring agency American Airlines.

Extending My SINCERE THANKS

To all my supporters at the polls and to all my workers.

Best wishes to all for the coming year.

JOHN HOLE

I Wish To Thank

All the people of Acton, Esquesing and Georgetown who supported me at the polls and also to all the people who worked on my behalf.

Allows Garner OPGA Win

Dave Garner thought he could win, and he did, Friday, when he beat veteran golfer Moe Norman by one stroke to capture the 1973 Canadian Professional Golfers Association Ontario branch championship.

Airlines, which provided flight vouchers for the winners.

The two-day event was played at the Georgetown Golf and Country Club. Garner missed a four-foot eagle putt on the final hole, but remained one up on Norman who came along minutes later and three-putted a five-foot shot.

House B was the big winner in a four-house sports day at Georgetown District High School, last week. House B collected 974 points, House A 909, House C 836, and House D 757.

Garner of the Board of Trade Country Club, finished 69-67, 136, to Norman's 69-68, 137. Norman represented Gifford Golf Haven.

House B won the students' track competition, House A the teachers competition, and the chess tourney, while House D took the euche tournament.

Coming in third in the competition was Bob Rose, Beverly Golf and Country Club, with a 138.

Individual winners were Paul Martin and Cathy Clark in year one, Ken Flindel and Alice Halbleib in year two, Gavin Strachan and Leanne Gillson in year three, and Jack Langedyk and Stephanie Lister in years four and five.

The tournament this year was sponsored by American
