Minor Drafts Completed 34 House League Teams

Georgetown and District Minor Hockey Association has released the following lineups for the 34 teams taking part in the house league hockey this season.

"A" designates the atom age group, "PW" the peewee age group, and "B" the bantam age group. Teams playing in the four town tournament have an "FT" designation.

ALLEYWAYS

Cathy Coburn, David Finlay Have Master-Bantam Leads

After the first of two qualifying days for the master bantam tournament, Cathy Coburn with 554 and David Finlay with 591 lead in the girls and boys sections respectively.

This weekend, all bantams will have a chance to improve their scores. The top six girls and top six boys will qualify. Bowls-offs do not count.

BANTAM GIRLS
Nikki Carney has the high average of 171. Lucky Strikers smashed Tigers in all three games. Swinging Six blanked Big Five for three victories. Rat Pack subdued Tiger-Cats in two games and totals:

Six Strikers salvaged one game from Lucky Howlers. Beginners tangled with Beavers, collecting two victories and total pins. Strikes Spares and Misses outclassed NoNames in every game.

Team standings: S. S. and M's 25; Tigers 21; Rat Pack 20; Lucky Strikers 18; Swinging Six 16; Six Strikers 16; Lucky Howlers 14; Beavers 12; Beginners 10; Big Five 7; No Names 7; Tiger-Cats 2.

"Quite A Year" Comments Coach

"It's been quite a year for this club," Georgetown Hoyalettes coach Jack Handy commented with a satisfied smile as he summed up their season.

Hoyalettes is the Georgetown midget girls team which eliminated Erindale and Streetsville juveniles in four games to capture the Peel Girls' Softball Association's 1973 championship.

At the end of the regular schedule the Hoyalettes were sitting atop the league heap. A few weeks earlier they came within a whisker of the Ontario title, but had to settle for the runner-up honors behind Bridlewood.

Their tournament efforts include a championship at Creemore, finalists at Bramalea, semi-finalists at Dorchester, and finalists at Burlington where they lost by one run.

Hoyalettes were one of just 12 teams selected from 45 to chase the Ontario midget A honors. En route to the finals they eliminated Erindale, North Bendale and Burlington. It was the best showing ever by a Georgetown girls softball team.

Hoyalettes lineup included, Margo Butler, Charlen Milton, Maxine Kemshhead, Lynn Scarborough, Debbie Hamilton, Laura Wilkes, Leanne Gilson, Diane Marshall, Barb Curry, Brenda Smith, Carol Kemshhead, Tammy King, Sandra Kerby and April Sacco. Ted Wilkes was their coach, and Jack Handy their manager.

They were sponsored by Branch 120, Royal Canadian Legion. A treasurer's report was given by Ruth Wightman. The membership discussed a point Christmas party, but the plans were tabled until the next meeting.

Requirements of the new members were discussed and several motions were passed. The next meeting will be held in Creemore, finalists at Bramalea, semi-finalists at Dorchester, and finalists at Burlington where they lost by one run.
