

LIMEHOUSE

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whalen of North Bay and his mother, Mrs. Whalen of Bracebridge last week, and on the Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Glynn and children of Clarkson, and Mr. and Mrs. James Agnew and Jim of Woodbridge.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sinclair to the village. They are living in Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks' new apartment on Wolesley Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linham hosted a party for 50 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sinclair. They were given a card table and chairs, and a lace tablecloth. A few rounds of euchre were enjoyed before lunch. John McLaughlin was a lucky number winner, and Clarence Coles held the lucky cup.

Rev. Peter Barror conducted communion services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

About three hundred and fifty enjoyed hot turkey at the annual anniversary dinner at Limehouse Presbyterian Church last week.

Mrs. Frank Brown opened the Women's Institute meeting by reading Love Never Ends, in Limehouse Memorial Hall, on Thursday evening. The Ode and Collect followed. Mrs. Brown also read current events. Mrs. Nell Anderson and Mrs. Frank Brown were appointed to attend the Guelph area convention in Kitchener, Nov. 1 and 2. Two attended Silverwood's short course: Ideas for the Kitchen. Mrs. N. Anderson reported on this and about a recent district directors' meeting. She and Mrs. Roughley joined Silverwood branch for a bus trip to the Erland Lee homestead and other places the latter commenting on an enjoyable day. An invitation was received to attend a tea at the home of Mrs. Ironside honoring Mrs. Corbett on her 80th birthday.

Speaker was a provincial board member Mrs. John Bird, introduced by Mrs. N. Anderson with a poem. After reviewing a number of resolutions Mrs. Bird conducted a debate, arguing that present apparent affluence has been more detrimental than contributory to today's society. In thanking her, Mrs. Brown gave her a potted house plant. Mrs. Roughley provided lunch for a social half-hour.

Congratulations go to Dr. Joseph Laeko and Nancy Gustavsen who were married by Rev. Peter Barrow in Limehouse Presbyterian Church, Saturday. The reception for 145 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. James Evans flew home from Edmonton to spend Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Mitchell and sister, Mrs. Sanford.

It has been brought to my attention, the need for a sub-post office in Glen Williams. Since the sale of Wheeler General Store, this service has not been available. Years ago the service was provided in a private home. Could this possibly be the solution for the time being, and is anyone interested in making an inquiry?

Getting ready to lay Broadloom:

All furniture should be removed from the room in which the broadloom is to be laid. It is not necessary, but if you wish your carpet to go under baseboard mouldings, carefully remove moulding and mark in pencil on the back of each piece from which wall it came from. Before cutting broadloom ensure that your knife or shears are sharp. This is vital for a clean cut. Carpeting featured in this advertisement comes complete with foam backing. This means you'll save money because you won't need underpadding.
