

Linton-Epworth Wedding Vows At Maple Avenue Baptist Church

In a wedding ceremony at Maple Avenue Baptist Church, on Saturday, Sept. 8 Anne Marie Linton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Linton, Georgetown, was united in marriage to Stephen Charles Epworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Charles Epworth of Pickering.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of white polyester satin with fitted bodice, and long, full sleeves of nylon lace. Her fingertip veil was edged with miniature daisies, and was held in place by a white lace headpiece. She carried a mixed bouquet of daisies, mums, pink roses and baby's breath.

Attending the bride as her maid of honor was her cousin, Nancy Brown of Mount Brydges, wearing a long gown of white and pink nylon dotted Swiss, fashioned with round neckline, short puffed sleeves, and full skirt with gathered flounce.

The bridesmaids were June and Ruth Linton, sisters of the bride, wearing identical gowns of pink and white nylon dotted Swiss fashioned in the same style as the maid of honor's and the groom's two sisters Susan and Debi Epworth, wearing the same style gowns in mauve and white nylon dotted Swiss. They all carried mixed bouquets of daisies and mums.

The flower girl was Kelly Hutchison of Acton, wearing a gown of white and pink nylon dotted Swiss, made in the same style as the bridesmaids. She carried a small white basket of mixed flowers. Ring bearer was Jeffrey Smythe of Georgetown.

Attending the groom as best man was Stephen Halb of Toronto. Ushers were Eric Tappendon, and Bart Derstepanian, both of Toronto; Robert Epworth, Pickering, brother of the groom, and Blair Groves of Georgetown.

Rev. Robert C. Lohnes performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. Sterling McCleary of Toronto, grandfather of the groom. Mrs. Ralph Dunn of Toronto presided at the organ, and accompanied Miss Lois Callingham of Willowdale, who sang three selections, Whither Thou Goest, The Lord's Prayer, and Wedding Song.

The reception was held at Somers Place, Huttonville. The bride's mother received in a long gown of gold polyester crepe, with bodice and long full sleeves of gold and orange sheer. Her corsage was a yellow cymbidium orchid and carnations. The groom's mother chose a long gown in tones of blue, pink and mauve sheer. Her corsage was a pink cymbidium orchid and roses.

miscellaneous shower was held in Hillcrest Church on Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, for Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Zoppa who were married in Vancouver on Sept. 15.

After a musical program by the Brush family of Milton, the bride and groom, assisted by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackett, opened the gifts. The bride is the former Barbara Blackett who lived with her parents and sister Pat on the ninth line some years ago. She and her husband will be living in Kamloops, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson and Alvin Marshall of Mount Forest motored on the weekend to Rochester, N.Y., to visit her sister and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mills of Weston spent a weekend with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson and enjoyed seeing old friends at Georgetown Fall Fair.

Congratulations go to Ken and relatives of the groom's family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McCleary, Downsview; friends and relatives of the bride's family, given by Miss Nancy Brown and her mother, Mrs. John Brown of Mount Brydges; and a presentation from the young people of Maple Avenue Baptist Church, Scarborough; friends
