Club Offers Novice Rally

GT Motor Sport Club is planning a special event for motor sport enthusiasts who would like to see what a rally is. On Sunday, there will be a rally school at 1 p.m. Lessons in navigation and tips for drivers will be discussed by Bill Davies, organizer and rallymaster at the Canadian Winter Rally. His short lecture will be followed directly by a 60-mile rally to provide a little experience to new drivers and navigators, competing for the first time. After the two hour rally, competitors will be served coffee and donuts in Cedarvale and two half-hour films about rallying will be shown.

If you are interested, attend Cedarvale prepared to go. Drivers must have working odometers in their cars, and navigators are advised to bring pens, pencils, paper and watches. If you can't find a rally partner, come along anyway, there will be somebody to be your navigator (or driver).

Other events planned by the GT Motor Sport Club include a driving skill test Nov. 4, in the Zeller's parking lot, a three-hour rally, starting at Cedarvale, Nov. 25, and the annual Moby Dick Economy Run, sometime in December. All motor sport enthusiasts are invited to attend general meetings of the club. The next meeting is Nov. 19, in Cedarvale.
