

Kinette Club Hosts Supper

Kinette Club of Georgetown hosted a pot luck supper at the home of Mrs. Rosine Levy, Oct. 16. Members and guests of Jaycettes, Lionettes and Opti-Mrs. also attended.

President Helen Curtis extended the welcome. Some 40 women sampled each other's kitchen specialties.

Hostess Patricia Holtved introduced the after-dinner speakers. Doug Collison, recreation director, outlined proposed plans for the swimming pool and arena-auditorium complex. Question and answer period followed.

A humorous and enlightening talk was given by Mrs. Norma Carrier, a representative of the Consumer Association of Canada.

The speakers were given ceramic gifts purchased from ARC Industries.

Raffle prizes, donated by Kinettes, were won by Betty Holstead, Joyce Goeling, Tillie Harvey, Barbara Kyle, Carol Beatty, Jean Murphy, Jackie Holmes, Norma Carrier, Joyce Watterworth, MADELINE Marks, Patricia Holtved, Sheila Breen and Sue MacDonald.

Georgetown Figure Skating Club's 1973-74 season started Oct. 14 with 250 pupils enrolled.

Annual highlight of the skating club's year is the carnival which will be held in February.

Professional staff includes Rick Dowling of Oakville, Sharon Dwyer of Acton, Janet Fell of Oakville, Stanlee Dulong of St. Catharines, and Mary, Lynn Williams of Georgetown.

Lake Couchiching was the scene, Sept. 7, 8 and 9, of the 1973 Skate-in. Representatives of the Georgetown Figure Skating Club were Mrs. Donna Moores and Ron Snow. The seminar dealt with many facets of a skating club's operation.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD LACEY
Wilkes And Lacey Nuptials
Are Held At St. George's

In a double-ring ceremony at St. George's Anglican Church, Lynne Wilkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilkes, Georgetown, was united in marriage with Edward Lacey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Lacey, Georgetown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown with a train of white organza with an overlay of lace covering the fitted bodice and top of the long, full sleeves. The lace also trimmed the high neckline of the gown.

She carried a bouquet of pink roses with a white orchid in the centre. Her hair was styled in replica of the lace in her gown. She wore a long veil with scalloped edges which flowed down over her train.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Wendy Witt of Brampton. She wore a long gown of lilac print over pink nylon with a lilac picture hat.

The flower girl was Kimberley Lacey, sister of the groom. She also wore lilac print over pink nylon. The bridesmaids were Maxine Corbett from Bramalea and Lynn Scarborough a cousin of the bride, from Georgetown. They wore long dresses of pink print over lilac nylon and pink picture hats. The matron of honor, bridesmaids and flower girl's dresses were identical in style. They carried pink and lilac carnations and the flower girl wore a band of flowers in her hair and carried the bouquet of flowers like the matron of honor and the bridesmaids. The ring bearer was Danny Lirette of Bramalea.

Attending the groom as best man was Wayne Huhtanen of Bramalea. Ushers were Roger Lacey and Keith Ramsden of Georgetown. The groom, best man, ushers and ring bearer wore grey tuxedos with lilac shirts. Their boutonnieres were lavender carnations.

The reception was held at the Legion hall with 125 guests present. A dance followed.

The bride's mother wore a long gown in lilac polyester satin.

The groom's mother wore a long gown in pink polyester crepe. Both mothers wore

LCW Ratifies New Chairman

On Oct. 18, the Local Council of Women met for its regular meeting in the committee room of the Canada Trust Building with the president, Mrs. Zetta Hayes, in the chair. The meeting opened with a moment of silent prayer, followed by an inspirational poem and the regular order of business, minutes, financial statement and the like.

Four new members were welcomed into the council.

Mrs. A. Pritchard spoke briefly about the proposed bake sale to be held in the gas office, Nov. 30.

The correspondence was read, and the forthcoming Defensive Driving Courses, as outlined by Chief F.N. Schwartz were discussed, and several members signified their intention to enrol.

A letter from the chairman of the provincial council committee on migration and citizenship was read and discussed.

The appointment of the newly designated chairmen of local committees was ratified. These are as follows: Arts and Letters—Mrs. C. B. Dick; Health—Mrs. W. Ferwerda; Housing—Mrs. Van Hoecklen; Recreation—Mrs. Mary Simpson; Migration and citizenship—Mrs. Z. Hayes.

Mrs. C. B. Dick led in the presentation for discussion of articles from the current "Consumer News". Mrs. Nieuwhof, safety chairman, spoke of the risks and hazards involved in careless bicycle riding particularly in certain areas of town.

Glen Grey was the speaker for the afternoon. He told of his work as recreation assistant for Georgetown, and outlined many of the town's existing recreational assets, and some of the more urgent needs required to round out its recreational program.

He was thanked on behalf of his hearers by Mrs. C. B. Dick. Mrs. Van Hoecklen was tea hostess for the afternoon.
