

Raiders Drop Close Match To Port Colbourne Sailors

Georgetown's popular fast-moving game has begun again for another year. The hockey season is upon us, which means Raider games. The first Raider game was a fast, and successful match with Dundas. The Raiders won 6-3, starting off what promises to be an exciting season. The first game was on Friday, October 12. On Sunday, Oct. 14, the Raiders tied Durham 3-3 in an exhibition game, while getting the feel of the competition. The third game of the season was lost to the Port Colbourne Sailors 6-0 on Tuesday, Oct. 16, in Port Colbourne.

was hard fought, with the teams fairly closely matched. The Raiders chopped the contest 10-8. The puck see-sawed between Raider and Sailor ice, with the team members scrambling all over, never knowing where the puck would be next. By the end of the first period, the Raiders were leading 4-3. The pattern in the second period again was a fast-moving see-saw action from one side of the arena, to the other and back again, over and over. The Raiders would score, evening the point standing and the Raiders would score, breaking the temporary tie. The Raiders' style at Friday's game was to score by powerful teamwork forcing the puck into Sailor territory and fast passing between the players before a quick, sudden goal. The Sailors on the other hand, would charge through Raider lines and shoot quick, right after a face-off in most cases. They seemed to rely more on good, individual players than teamwork between the players. The teams came back from the change rooms, into the third period with the Raiders leading by one goal. For the first part of the period, the puck was jockeyed from one side of the arena to the other. Each team challenged up one goal, leaving the Raiders ahead by only one point. Then, in the last 10 minutes, the Sailors used their sudden-goat system after a face-off. Three times the puck was shot quickly into Raider defense lines and the Sailors scored within 3 minutes of fighting. The last goal took less than a minute and was little over a minute before the end of the game. Time ran out and the Sailors won 10 to 8.

Coach Ingles said that he thought he had a strong team, but he couldn't rate the other teams he has not yet seen this season. He said it was hard to say what the Raider's chances will be of winning the championship again this year.

Closing dinner of the women's golf section of the North Halton Golf and Country Club was held at the clubhouse. Captain Edith McIntyre presented the following prizes for the season's competitions. by CHRIS BURKE With the approach of the season's first Youth Bowling tournaments, the scores rolled in the YBC leagues at Georgetown. Bowls have become higher and more consistent.
